ONE MAN DEAD AND TWO HELD IN CAMERON STREET GUN FIGHT BUSINESS WOMEN OBSERVE NATIONAL WEEK

TRIBUTE IS PAID HERE BY PEOPLE OF CAMERON

CAMERON CLUB MEMBERS CELEBRATE AND CONTRIBUTE NEWS MATTER TO HERALD THIS WEEK

National Business Women's Week, March 6 to 12, is being celebrated in Cameron this week.

The Cameron Club and its members are contributing reading matter to this issue of The Herald and this edition will be found an interesting paper to preserve for future study. In addition to the news matter the club women have placed a number of advertisements in this issue.

Business women throughout the nation are lending their co-operation this week to the celebration and among the features of interest about the program this week are the window displays arranged by business houses in honor of the women.

In this issue will be found a number of contributions of interest bearing upon the membership and activities of the club, each member receiving mention and in addition officers are contributing articles of interest.

COURT HERE ACCEPTS COMMISSIONER'S OFFER

COMMISSIONER'S COURT VOTES
APPROVAL OF BANKING
DEPARTMENT'S PLAN

Office of Commissioner's Court of Milam County, Texas

Now on this 29th day of February, A. D., 1932, there came on for consideration the written proposition of the Commissioner of Banking, in reference to the account of Milam County against said Commissioner for the funds of Milam County on deposit in the Cameron State Bank at the time it failed and it being ascertained that the indebtedness of said failed bank to this County for the State, County and School Funds is approximately in the sum of $108,000.00, and the Commissioner of Banking has offered to this Court that if this Court will agree to account for and allow him a credit on said claim for the face value of the amount of collateral securities of said Bank held by the Court to secure said Bank's indebtedness to this Court in said sum above mentioned, that the said Commissioner will then allow and permit this bank to have and will pay to it regular and equal dividends on said sum of approximately $108,000.00 or the true amount due to this Court, until such dividends, together with said $70,000.00, shall equal the entire indebtedness of said Cameron State Bank to this Court for such funds.

The Court having fully considered such matter and such offer, has, by

W. G. GILLIS CANDIDATE FOR DISTRICT JUDGESHIP

WIDELY KNOWN CITIZEN AND ATTORNEY WANTS TO SERVE
PEOPLE OF MILAM COUNTY

Graham Gillis, widely known Cameron attorney and citizen, is a candidate for District Judge for Milam County, subject to action of the Democratic Primary election to be held on July 23, 1932.

In offering for District Judge for Milam County, Judge Gillis finds that hundreds of friends throughout the county have offered their support and influence and his announcement will be received with interest among all the people who know him and believe that he can bring to the Judiciary a measure of service that will justify their fine confidence and make available legal knowledge and talents well suited for distinguished public service.

Graham Gillis is a native of Milam County and his life has been spent whenever possible in the service of the people who know and appreciate the qualities of his character. In early years after sufficient training in school he became a teacher and later served the county as Superintendent of the public schools. He was early attracted to the profession of law and was admitted to the bar and became one of Texas' best known attorneys and today enjoys a large practice and the esteem of the profession in this and other counties. He was elected and served for a number of years as County Judge and he feels grateful for the measure of public confidence expressed by the people in other years in trusting to his care the important administrative duties of these offices.

Judge Gillis wants to serve the people of Milam County as District Judge. His friends believe that he can bring to the Judiciary a measure of legal knowledge that will enhance the service of the court. In announcing his candidacy he feels grateful for the hundreds of appeals made by people that he enter the race. They know him and they believe in his integrity and training and they have watched his career with appreciation dating back to a lad who first turned his eyes to the conquest of problems and later in increased knowledge and growth when public service called him and when the large places of citizenship beckoned. Graham Gillis has never shirked a responsibility nor has he ever failed to respond to the call of duty, his friends point out. By education and training he would bring to the office of District Judge ripe experience as a jurist and his knowledge of law would enable him to serve with honor and distinction.

Born and reared among the people he now wants to serve as District

Can Recover $15,000 From Bond Co. in Bank Shortage Says Camp; Meeting Held

Shortage found by auditors for the state banking department at the Cameron State Bank will enable the Commissioner of Banking to recover $15,000 from bonding companies, it was said by E. A. Camp, attorney for the Commissioner, addressing a meeting of the depositors of the failed bank in the district court room in Cameron, Tuesday at 2 p. m.

This sum which is taken to indicate the amount of bond executed for those liable for the shortage, will be paid into the hands of the Banking Commissioner of Texas and in turn pro-rated to depositors when the affairs of the bank are adjusted sufficiently to pay a return.

Mr. Camp did not say that the $15,000 would pay back all the discrepancy found by the auditors.

The Cameron State Bank closed on December 17, 1931 and the meeting held on Tuesday was called by the committee for the depositors of which Dr. J. L. Denson is chairman.

In a circular issued calling this meeting the County Judge and four Commissioners were asked to be present but they did not attend, it was said, instead holding a meeting in an adjoining room at which Dr. Denson presented the view of depositors as compared with the view of the Court taken in accepting the proposal of the Banking Commissioner which would guarantee the county against loss.

Freeman Presides

J. K. Freeman, a depositor, stated the purpose of the meeting and among other things said that when the Bank failed, Milam County had on deposit in the Bank, the sum of $108,500.00 with bonds placed with the County in the sum of $70,000.00 for security. He explained that the

FUTURE FARMERS HOLD FATHER-SON BANQUET; STRESS FARM TRAINING

The agriculture students of Yoe high school were hosts to their dads at a Father and Son Banquet held in the Ada Henderson building on Friday, March 4, 1932. The girls of the Home Economics department served a plate with ice cream. Johnnie Richter, president of the local chapter, presided over the meeting. Mr. V. A. Morrison and Mr. O. L. Kidd were the chief speakers of the evening. They stressed the need for special training in modern methods of farming and complimented the local school on the progress that had been made this year. Others who made short talks were Rush Thomas, Dr. W. R. Newton and Supt. T. A. Fisher. This very successful banquet was sponsored by the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America. Officers of the local chapter are: president, Johnnie Richter; vice president, Lawrence McClaren; secretary, Coleman Duncum; treasurer, Bailey Dunham; reporter, Boyd Chamberlain; advisor, A. C. Strickland. There were 55 in attendance. Music for the occasion was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cox, assisted by Frank Newton and Troval Stall.

The list of guests follows: Dr. W. R. Newton, Messrs. W. A. Morrison, Rush Thomas, O. L. Kidd, T. A. Fisher, Guy T. Newton, Shep McClaren, S. Duncum, J. W. Seidl, J. D. Martin, A. F. McGregor, W. E. Chamberlain, Clyde Hensley, L. J. Dunham, E. G. Lowe, J. E. Richardson, M. C. Russell, Frank Moraw, Raymond Richter, Alfred Ondrej, Robert Crowell, Connie Strickland, Hermon Bayer and Mrs. A. C. ### APPLICATIONS READY FOR FEDERAL CROP LOANS

WM. COBB SECRETARY FOR COMMERCIAL CLUB ASSISTING
FARMERS

Supplies have been received and applications of farmers are being filed for loans from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, at headquarters of Commercial Club in Cameron; the State Bank at Rockdale and the State Bank at Buckholts and Thomas Store at Gause.

Several completed sets of papers were taken up by E. E. Brown, district agent, at the board meeting in Cameron, Tuesday which he said were the first completed in the district and probably the first in Texas.

Additional supplies were received Wednesday which will enable all qualified borrowers to be served promptly.

Loans are being made to farmers who are unable to get loans at banks. Tenant farmers must get their land lords to waive their prior lien.

Most loans, according to W. M. Cobb, secretary of the Commercial Club are made on a basis of two dollars to three dollars an acre and even less, the borrowers seeming to want to get along on the least possible amount. One dollar an acre is advanced for general purposes, a dollar an acre for feed, if needed, and the necessary amount for seed. Provision is made to buy fertilizer, if needed and used. Money for these purposes must be spent as designated and the district agent of the Finance Corporation must be shown receipts, if he so requests.

The Milam County board is composed of Conn R. Isaacs of Rockdale; J. C. Freeman of Maysfield and K. P. Lehman of Buckholts, working in conjunction with George Banzhaf county agent.

HENRY E. BAUKNIGHT IS BURIED IN ROCKDALE

FORMER BUSINESS MAN HERE
DIES IN DAUGHTER'S HOME
IN SAN ANTONIO

The funeral of Henry E. Bauknight, who died Wednesday morning, March 2 at 6:30 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Vaughan T. Pau' and husband in San Antonio, was held on Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Odd Fellows cemetery in Rockdale. Rev. W. A. Craven, pastor of the First Methodist church in Rockdale conducted the services at the grave. Interment was made by the side of his late wife who died in the winter of 1929.

Mr. Bauknight was born in South Carolina, October 20, 1860. He was married to Miss Telulah Dumbler in South Carolina and subsequently came to Texas and to Cameron later where he engaged in business and was a successful man for over 20 years. He moved with his family to West Texas and later made his home in Abilene for a few years, selling out and moving to Goree, Texas, where he again entered into business, living there for several years, and later moved with his wife to Fort Worth where he was living at the time of her death. Later he went to Dallas to live with his

BUSINESS MAN HERE AND FORMER LUMBERMAN DIES
AFTER LONG ILLNESS

After a lingering illness of several weeks, Grover Cleveland Walters died Tuesday afternoon, March 8 at 2:35 o'clock at the hospital where he had been taken several weeks ago for medical aid, but nothing could be done to relieve him.

Mr. Walters was born May 25, 1883 at Trickham, Coleman county, Texas. He was married to Mrs. Vada Tucker Little, April 1, 1925. To this union was born one child, Hubert, age 4. At that time Mr. Walters was manager of the Milam County Lumber Company, a position that he held for a number of years.

He was a man of bright, cheerful, social nature, and made many friends in Cameron and Milam county who will be grieved to hear of his passing.

Early in youth he united with the Baptist church and remained in that church until 1929 when he took fellowship with the First Christian church in Cameron and had taken much interest in all its activities.

Rev. Joel B. Hardigree, pastor of the Christian church conducted the funeral services, taking as his text, "To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of the tree of life; which is in the paradise of God," Rev. 2:7. Services were conducted at the home. Interment was made in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Walters is survived by his widow and son. Children of a former marriage are G. C. Walters, Jr., age 16; Ernest Walters, age 13 years; and two step children, Miss Billie Moore age 16 and Taylor Moore, age 13 years.

Pallbearers were members of the Odd Fellows Lodge and were Judge Jeff T. Kemp, J. L. Slaughter, J. L. Adams, Roy Law, Joe Bass and C. C. Smith.

Beautiful floral offerings covered the newly made grave. Coleman and Eplen had charge of the funeral.

Roy Baskin Appointed District Judge Here

Roy Baskin, attorney and former county attorney of the county, was appointed District Judge here Monday when the March term was to be held.

Judge Watson is ill in a Dallas hospital and could not be present for the term, it was said. The Bar for the county named Judge Baskin to preside in court during the absence of Judge Watson.

The Grand Jury has not been convened for the March term.

Mrs. Jack Cammer is a patient in the Cameron hospital this week.

Examining Trial Held For Weaver Vaughn

Examining trial was being held beginning at ten o'clock Thursday morning for Weaver Vaughn before Justice Ralston in the county court room.

Vaughn is charged with murder in connection with the shooting to death of Robert Kirk here on Monday morning at 9:45.

At 2:30 this afternoon following the examining trial Vaughn was admitted to bail in the sum of $5000 by Justice Ralston.

The trial had consumed a major part of the day. Vaughn did not testify but a number of witnesses did take the stand and it was developed that Vaughn's motive was, as had been claimed, protection of his family.

Miss Elizabeth Mangum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Mangum, has been ill with flu the past week. She is reported much improved now.

ROBERT KIRK WITH FOUR BODY WOUNDS IS SLAIN

WEAVER VAUGHN ARRESTED BY GENE SMITH AFTER BOB
KIRK IS SLAIN

Robert Kirk, 29, was shot to death at 9:45 Monday morning, March 7, 1932 as he walked from the Green Brothers store in company with his brother Wiley Kirk.

Weaver Vaughn after the shooting left the scene and went rapidly in the direction of the Citizens National Bank, reloading a 38 calibre Colt revolver from which he had fired five shots. Vaughn turned west and went in the direction of the Gulf Station across the street from the Milam County Lumber Company.

After Bob Kirk had fallen lifeless to the pavement, his brother, Wiley Kirk went to the body and tearing away the shirt got a 38 automatic pistol from his dead brother and followed Vaughn, running to the bank corner and turning west in the direction Vaughn had taken. No shots were fired as both men were plunging thru the crowd. When Vaughn reached a light pole in the middle of the block he stopped and Kirk approaching a light pole at the corner across from the Whatley Grocery stopped and taking aim with the gun of his slain brother opened fire on Vaughn. One bullet entered the center of the pole and another grazed the side and passed on. He was shooting west. In all four shots are said to have been fired. Vaughn did not return the fire, saying later that he did not want to harm Wiley Kirk as he had nothing against him. If Vaughn had opened fire the bullets would have gone

GILES L. AVRIETT TALKS TO BUSINESS WOMEN

CLUB HEARS PROGRAM LAUDING
MODERN WOMAN
IN BUSINESS

The "Possibilities for Public Service by Business Women" was the subject Giles L. Avriett used in an address to the Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening, March 8 at their meeting. Mr. Avriett dwelt on the capability of woman for right, and said that a woman should have high ideals and not be an idealist; and stressed the point that woman were singularly adopted to stand for right, which she usually did; and spoke of the opportunities that are now open for business women.

There were present a number of specially invited guests, among them representatives of other service clubs in the city.

Mrs. A. C. Strickland represented the Cameron History Club for her mother, Mrs. Wm. Henderson, who is president and pledged her support to

'Cut it Out and Drop Your Guns,' Said Gene Smith and Gun Fight On Street Monday Was Ended

Gene Smith, bold, colorful and courageous peace officer, City Marshal of Cameron and candidate for Sheriff of Milam County, figured again Tuesday in a Cameron gun battle, not of his choosing or affair, but as a composer of the peace.

Gene has been a victim of much of that sort of thing. It nearly always happens that Gene Smith is the man to stop it. And he did stop it.

Here's what he said, just seven words: "Cut it out and drop your guns." They did and the Vaughn-Kirk gun fight in which one man was killed, was ended and both surviving men placed in jail.

About all the trouble Gene has ever had has been for someone else or for the law which he has served many times. Whether just a plain citizen or an officer he's always ready and he always comes to the place where something has to be done and he always does it.

Gene was in a barber shop. It didn't make no difference about the lather on his face. He knew it was gun fire and so he ran to the fight. He didn't fool around any or waste no time. Somebody was shooting at somebody else and it ought to be stopped.

Gene's heard a lot of shooting and has been shot at a lot, but he never has hurt nobody unless he had to. He's always been right in there playing with his friends and he's never been called on he didn't come.

Fresh in the minds of Cameron people are two other occasions when Gene Smith was called. Some of his friends think he has had enough of that kind of thing for any two or three men, but Gene don't never complain none. He don't seem to mind but of course he don't like trouble. His heart is big and tender but he can let the hammer down on a 45 mighty good too, and he's always there when needed. Books have been written about men with less courage and exploit. Some day somebody will write his story and it will be a cracking good one all filled up with spirit and action.

HOMES BEAUTIFUL

By MOLLIE A. MOORE

The Business and Professional Women's Clubs of these United States are sponsoring and trying to instill patriotism under the name of civic pride and during this Bicentennial of George Washington's birth, these clubs urge you in the name of George Washington to beautify your homes and driveways, and our roads and highways by planting shrubs, flowers and trees and dedicating them to the memory of George and Martha Washington. These clubs well know the hearts of humanity hunger for the beautiful on this mundane sphere and expects to associate with and enjoy the beautiful some "Sweet Day," in the Glory World far above the blue canopy of earth, when the Spirit has wafted on Angel wings Home, Sweet Home. Methinks an ideal home, be it a lowly one or an expensive mansion should be a miniature heaven, and to make it such, we must strive to live the Golden Rule in the home and with the neighbors and to make the interior comfortable, homey-like and pretty with or without expensive materials; and the exterior beautiful in its setting of plant life; for it is there we should spend much time on sunny days to enjoy the beauty of the ever changing clouds as the sun sends his sparkling rays through the misty veil which wraps mother earth in a winding shroud and changes her blue into various shades of crimsons and pinks or gold and amber hues and wakes the birds to thank their Creator for the new day with their songs of melody; and to drink in and enjoy the life giving violet rays of the King of Day as he showers his dazzling rays through our atmosphere to destroy all kinds of obnoxious germs and give humanity a new lease on life and paints our blossoms and some shrubs with rainbow tints, as he reluctantly bids our day good-bye with a farewell kiss, which flushes her clouds with pink, lavender and gold until twilight dawns and a twinkling star here and there heralds the Queen of Night with myriads of stars in her train.

Home makers can give a peaceful, restful feeling to their home surroundings or the reverse, by the plants they choose and by the arrangement of the plants they use. It is wise to select plants best fitted for your soil and keep in mind your water problem, particularly during their first summer. Some plants thrive with little moisture, for instance dusty miller, goldenrod, periwinkle, phlox, petunias, verbenas, narcissi, jonquils and all species of cactus and early blooming shrubs. Select a color scheme that will harmonize with their surroundings, remembering that greens, whites, creams, pinks and lavenders look well with all colors of painted buildings, while deep orange and bright reds may be ever so beautiful but they clash with other colors and rack one's nerves when constantly with them. Expense is an item but flowers are one of the blessings our Heavenly Father made especially for mankind and He has scattered so many beautiful ones over mother earth—free to all, who will take them, therefore search our woods and prairies and you will find many beautiful shrubs and annuals which are well worth transplanting. In planting shrubs, remember they want room for growth.

May the time speedily come, when each of you, dear readers, will have a beautiful home, partly covered with clinging vines—queen's wreath, clematis, cypress, Jackbeans and climbing roses, etc., with a wide flower bed growing roses and other blooming shrubs—bridal wreath, perennial phlox, stock, yard ferns and lillies of various kinds and bordered in violets and running all around your home, broken only by carefully laid walks which are bordered with wide beds holding phlox, snap dragons, spider lillies and verbenas in shades of your color scheme. An evergreen or two or a few flowering shrubs in your grassy lawns from your flower beds to the street well enhance their beauty. Your driveway will be beautiful bordered with flowers and fruit trees with their masses of fragrant lovely blossoms attracting the busy bees, the butterflies and humming birds and in later months their beautifully tinted fruits will be delicious enough to please the fairies. Shrubs bearing flowers and berries, like bridal wreath, altheas, crepe myrtle, cape jasmynes, dogwood, red bud, holly, abelias, etc., planted five feet or more apart in two rows, with five feet or more space between the rows and planted so the space in one row is in front of a shrub in the second row will make a beautiful division between your front and back yards and give your shrubs space to grow without crowding and add a restful beauty to your home. Outhouses hidden by evergreens or flowering shrubs and fruits and with nut trees bearing their foliage and fruit above them add beauty to the whole and give fruits fit for the gods, and if by chance, oaks or strong forest trees stand near, plant English ivy, wisteria or grape vines to cling on them and you will have a background beautiful enough to attract all passers by. Unsightly fences covered in vines, grapes, dewberry, sarsaparilla, ivy or climbing roses change them into beauty very pleasing to the eye.

If you desire economy in labor and expense and on your water supply, sow your lawns with blue bonnets or verbenas and see what beauty nature will give with dewdrops and rain. Remember, to be an ideal home, every member of its household must have a part in making it beautiful. Give every child, even the tiny tot, some spot to plant. Remember, helter, skelter planting and cultivating will instill haphazard traits of character in the individual and a regular systematic method will produce desirable traits in the child and exercise in mother earth's ozone and the violet rays of King Sol will give strength to the body and add roses to the complexion. Permission to use the flowers vegetables or fruits grown on the child's plot of ground will instill interest and pleasure in the tasks connected with it, and love for home, which is the highest type of patriotism. By suggestions and example in the uses of the products. You instill the Golden Rule and develop a worthwhile character for our nation and for God's Kingdom.

SALEM

By J. M. MOORMAN

It seems that the country schools do not have a chance to win from the larger schools (Rockdale and Cameron) in basketball. The country school usually has about six men to pick from on their boys team and seven or eight for a girl's team, so the chances are two to one against country schools.

If class A schools are placed in a separate group in track, they should be in basketball. The coaches of the country schools should see to this before next year and make arrangements for such. This is the only fair way for the country schools to decide a winner.

I am not casting any "stones" at the class A schools, but I am trying to help the boys and girls get in their class in the country schools. By class I mean numbers.

CLUB SPIRIT

By LOTTIE S. BIGBEE
President Cameron Business and Professional Women's Club

Club Spirit is that ephemeral, yet virulent something without which no Club can really be successful. It is that urge which causes officers and committees and other interested members who are not serving on committees to give freely of their time and thought to further the best interest of the Club. The combination of officers and committees, planning for the Club and giving their time unselfishly on the one hand, and unselfishly interested members backing up in a properly appreciative way the work of their officers by interest and attendance make a perfect Club picture. It is just this Club Spirit which makes and will continue to make the Cameron Business and Professional Women's Club outstandingly successful. We are all proud of our club and justly so.

JONES PRAIRIE

By MRS. R. K. FONTAINE

Helen Harrell spent last week in Waco visiting relatives.

The chili supper at Jones Prairie Friday night was well attended. Everyone present enjoyed the evening although the weather outside is very disagreeable.

C. C. Black and family of Cameron visited in the community Sunday.

Lee Marek spent the week end in San Antonio.

Mrs. W. J. Fontaine is spending this week in Belton with her daughter Mrs. Roy Little.

Mrs. Lee Marek was called to San Antonio Thursday on account of illness of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Meger.

Mrs. Henry Black is confined to her bed at this time; she has an attending nurse, Miss Jinks.

Connie Mae Hickman and Ollie Mae Smitherman spent the week end at Caldwell visiting Jewelle Smitherman.

Mrs. Carrie McLerran spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. John Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Love of Bryan spent Sunday at the P. H. Love home.

Jones-Glenn

Miss Mary E. Jones and Robert Glenn were united in marriage Saturday at 12:00 noon by Rev. Spradley at the home of Mrs. W. T. Johnson.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Dick Jones and is very popular here. Robert, being the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Glenn, has been a very successful farmer since he has been out of school.

An impressive ring ceremony was employed and the bride wore a beautiful crepe dress of new spring green with hat to harmonize. Wearing a beautiful corsage presented her by the groom's mother, who was unable to attend the wedding.

The bride's brother, Bailey Jones and wife and son and Miss Louise Jamison were the only guests present.

Many friends will be glad to learn that Royal P. Jeter, who has been ill for some time at the Cameron hospital, is improving rapidly and has been taken to his home.

PAINS QUIT COMING

"When I was a girl, I suffered periodically with terrible pains in my back and sides. Often I would bend almost double with the intense pain. This would last for hours and I could get no relief.

"I tried almost everything that was recommended to me, but found nothing that would help until I began taking Cardui. My mother thought it would be good for me, so she got a bottle of Cardui and started me taking it. I soon improved. The bad spells quit coming. I was soon in normal health."

HISTORY OF CAMERON BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB

By DELPHYA SCOTT

The Business and Professional Women's Club in Cameron dates its beginning to 1925 when it was a recreational club with Miss Susan Pope as its Chairman. After nearly a year the club decided to organize more fully and elected as their first president Miss Anne Stallworth who served one year. At this time the club was called a Business and Professional Women's Club.

Miss Rose Rischar was the second president and served most faithfully for nearly two years. During her first year's administration the club voted to Federate, changing the time of election of officers to conform to the Federated laws. This was during prosperous times and a large number of members federated. Mrs. Meta McCown was elected third president of the club and served most splendidly.

Mrs. Gladys Watson followed Mrs. McCown and made one of the best presidents until ill health caused her absence at many times. Miss Rose Rischar was again elected to the presidency and served the club efficiently.

As times grew more strenuous, the club grew less in number. Last year Mr. L. Bigbee was elected president and is serving the club in an efficient manner.

For several years the club met in different homes, the Country Club or in the city park.

The Commercial Club, Lions Club and American Legion have recognized the club and its activities and have co-operated in a number of events in Cameron. Some of the best talent and finest speakers have appeared on the programs from time to time.

A number of the members have been recognized by the State Club. Mrs. Nina Wilkerson was appointed State Legislative Chairman the first year of our Federation. Miss Ann Stallworth was elected treasurer in 1928 for the Business and Professional Women's Club of Texas, and was unanimously elected to second term and served with distinction. The Club proudly claims as a member one who bears the distinction of being elected as the most outstanding citizens in Cameron in the person of Miss Mollie Moore who was unanimously elected, in a contest by the American Legionnaires in 1929, and received a beautifully framed certificate. Another honor came to the club in 1928 when Miss Anne Stallworth was appointed Gift Chairman for the State of Texas, the object of which was to help formulate a definite financial plan to be worked out to purchase and establish a National Headquarters at Washington, D. C., for the Federated Business and Professional Women's Clubs. At this time the state club pledged to give $350, to be collected from the different local clubs over the state.

In 1928 Delphya Scott was appointed State Assistant Publicity Chairman to serve with the State Publicity Chairman, Kate McKay of Dallas, and had as her duty to receive all reports from this district, composing the clubs of Corsicana, Waco, Belton, Temple, Beaumont and Cameron. She has been the local publicity chairman since the organization of the Cameron club with the exception of a few months when out of town, when Miss Bess DuBois was the able publicity chairman.

The Club has been represented at all the state meetings and at one National meeting, sending Miss Rose

Rischar to the meeting at New Orleans.

Splendid Year Books are made each year and all meetings are being carried out as directed by the State program chairman.

Several young people have received aid in sending them to commercial schools during the past five years. The club has sponsored good gardens, and yard beautification, paying cash prizes to those judged successful winners. Under the direction of the City Park chairman, Mrs. L. Bigbee, the City Park has been beautified, setting out a number of fine pecan trees, shrubbery and flowers.

Cash Crops Better Products Theme of Taylor Meeting

Importance of cash crops on the farm and the improvement of products marketed, will be brought to the attention of several hundred farmers around Taylor on March 16, when the first annual Swift Day is held at the high school auditorium.

Producers of butterfat, poultry and eggs will be told how their products are marketed and how they can procure better returns for what they have to sell, by experts from the A. & M. College of Texas, county agents, and others. The program is sponsored by the local produce plant of Swift & Company.

The meeting, which will be an all day affair, will be called to order at 9:30 by F. T. Smith. G. V. Jeck will discuss poultry ills that cause heavy losses to farm flocks. F. M. Simpson of Chicago will talk on how the butter, eggs and poultry of Texas are marketed. D. W. Brown, county agent will offer some helpful hints and Prof. R. W. Persons, A. & M. College of Texas will discuss "Relief from Low Prices." The motion pictures include "A Tale of Two Bulls," "Blood Will Tell," and "Producing Quality Chicks."

Luncheon will be served to those in attendance.

Independence For You

After all it is an easy matter. All you have to do is to budget your expenditures and put a small amount aside each week or each month.

In a little while at 4 per cent you will see a sizeable sum of money working for you and offering you that measure of independence which is a reward for foresight and interest in your own welfare.

You will be surprised as thousands of others have been surprised what a difference it will make in your life if you will but save a part of your income. Let it be small or large, the result is the same.

Come in and let us talk over with you the possibilities of savings at 4 per cent and let us show you the facilities we have to handle your account and the safeguards we place around it.

Don't wait for that elusive thing—Prosperity—but begin now in a modest way and in a few years no depression can touch you.

Bank

depositors wanted the County to retain its bonds of $70,000.00 and to pay rate with the depositors in the shortage, $38,500.00. He explained that it had been claimed that the law gives the county a preference over the depositors, but that is untrue that there is no such law; and that it was not right, that it was wrong for the County to take all of the $38,500.00, that if they did, it was taking the money of the depositors.

It was further explained by Mr. Freeman that the $38,500.00 belonging to the county, and unsecured by bond, should not be given preference over the average common depositor. Mr. Freeman also stated that at the first meeting no complaint or criticism of the Banking Commissioner and his deputies in charge of the bank was made; that there had been some rumors that the depositors refused to consider until they learned the facts; but that since that meeting, he had called on deputies in charge of the bank and stated that the committee appointed by the depositors wanted to look over the books of the Bank to ascertain if these reports were true; and that the deputy refused to permit such examination, stating that he did not have authority, and that we would be required to get this authority from the Banking Commissioner at Austin.

Dr. Denson Reports

Dr. J. L. Denson, chairman of the Depositors Committee, had been conferring with the Commissioners Court in another room, and appeared and said that the Commissioners had told him that the Banking Commissioner had made a rule to the effect that the County should get the entire $108,500. Mr. Freeman corrected this and stated that it was not a ruling; but an arrangement or agreement between the Commissioners Court and the Banking Commissioner, which was entered of record in the minutes of the Commissioners Court of Milam County. This agreement will be found in another column of The Herald.

Dr. Denson further stated that at the last meeting Mr. Morrison, attorney for the County, had said that the school fund had to be paid dollar for dollar. That the other two banks were liable for the payment and if necessary, he would see that the banks paid it. Mr. Morrison was sick and unable to attend the meeting.

E. A. Camp Speaks

E. A. Camp, attorney for the banking commissioner, was present and on invitation addressed the meeting and stated that the Banking Commissioner had nothing to do with the arrangements, but that he would leave the controversy between the depositors and the Commissioners Court. He further stated that as an attorney for the Banking Commissioner was doing all he could to collect the debts owing to the bank so that the depositors could be paid as far as possible, and that the auditors found some discrepancy, which would enable the Commissioner to recover from the banking company the sum of $15,000.00.

Dr. Denson addressed the meeting again and stated that the reason the committee wanted to examine the books of the bank was that it was reported that large sums of money had been withdrawn from the bank about the time it closed.

A. J. Gunnels of Hanover, a depositor, asked whether the school fund involved was a part of the $108,500.

E. P. Matocha Speaks

Attorney E. P. Matocha made a strong and earnest appeal, urging that the depositors be given an opportunity to share equally with the county in the dividends to be paid by the bank in its liquidation. He pointed out further that it would be unfair for the county to receive every cent of its unprotected claim, whereas the average depositor would lose his.

No criticism was made of the Commissioners Court for putting the money in the bank without security. Mr. Freeman urged strongly that when the agreement was made between the Banking Commissioner and the Commissioners Court that the depositors should have been given an opportunity to be present and heard; that it is provided in the Constitution, both of the Nation and State, that no man should be deprived of his life, liberty or property without due process of law and that this involved the service of notice and citation.

Mr. Morrison, retained by the Commissioners Court, following the failure of the Cameron State Bank, was unable to be present and therefore no definite understanding could be reached with the Commissioners Court, and the meeting adjourned subject to call of the Depositors Committee.

daughter, Mrs. Paul, for the past year or more, had been living with his daughter in San Antonio and for over a year had been in declining health; was bed ridden for more than three months prior to his passing.

The remains were brought to Rockdale over the I. & G. N. railroad and were taken to the Odd Fellows cemetery where the last sad rites were given him.

While living in Cameron Mr. Bauknight was a steward of the Methodist church, gave of his means and time freely, and has many friends who regret his passing. A number of them were present at the funeral services in Rockdale and pall bearers were from Cameron and were Messrs. C. W. Lawrence, Robert McLane, Judge Jeff T. Kemp, J. M. Ralston, M. G. Cox and Arthur Baskin. Those to attend were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Cox, Judge Jeff T. Kemp, Mrs. Jessie Winn, Mrs. Pearl Clement, Miss Delphya Sent, Miss Mollie Moore, G. B. Tracy, Will Cox and Arthur Baskin. A large crowd of friends in Rockdale attended.

A colored friend who had lived with the Bauknight family for over fifteen years while in Cameron, followed his friend to the last resting place, Cozier Walker, faithful to the last.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. V. T. Paul and son V. T. Paul Jr., of San Antonio; two brothers, one in Florida and one in Georgia and several nephews and nieces.

Court

unanimous vote, accepted the same, and does here now agree with said Banking Commissioner that, in the final settlement of the account of this Court with said Cameron State Bank, that it will allow him full credit for the face value of said bonds in the sum of $70,000.00 and accrued interest out of consideration of the fact that the said Commissioner now withdraws all of his claim against said $70,000.00 in bonds, and permits this Court to sell and dispose of the same without hindrance or claim from him.

It is therefore, ordered that this Court accept said proposition as before stated, and said Commissioner be notified that this Court takes the said $70,000.00 in bonds under the proposition submitted by him, and it is so ordered.

JEFF T. KEMP, County Judge.
The foregoing order is heretofore approved on behalf of the Commissioner of Banking.

A. A. SPACER, Special Agent in charge of Cameron State Bank in Liquidation.

Gun Battle

in the direction of people in the block to the east of the scene of the shooting.

Bob Kirk Has Five Wounds

According to witnesses of the shooting at the Green Brothers store where Bob Kirk was slain, Weaver Vaughn was standing at the curb near a light pole when Kirk stepped from the Green Brothers store and opened fire, the bullet entering a plate glass show window. Vaughn was said to have stood there for a few seconds with pistol waiting for Kirk. The first shot went wild. Kirk then stepped toward the curb just east of the stairway that leads to the Telephone Exchange and at this time Vaughn fired again. This bullet entered his left shoulder and entered the region of the heart. Kirk fell on his back into the street, his feet some two feet from the curb. Vaughn is said to have walked to where Kirk lay and fired three more shots, two bullets taking effect in his stomach, one center and the other to the right and the other entering the heart about one inch to the right of the left nipple. There was also a slight wound in the right hand and a glove picked up at the scene of the killing showed a bullet hole in the top. It was a glove for the right hand. In all five shots were fired.

Gene Smith Arrives

The shots were fired, two in fairly rapid succession with an intermission and then three more. City Marshal Gene Smith was in the Auditorium Barber Shop being shaved but knew the sounds were pistol shots. He ran from the shop with lather on his face, crossed the intersection of the street at the Palace of Sweets and passed by and looked at Kirk. People down the street motioned to him that a gun fight was going on on the south side of the block. He drew his pistol and made for the storm center. Arriving Smith saw the position of the men and witnessed the firing by Kirk.

He lost no time as usual in getting into action. He said: "Cut it out and drop your guns," and no more shots were fired and the battle was ended. Kirk replied that he would drop his gun if Vaughn did and so Smith disarmed them both taking the automatic from Kirk and the 38 Colt double action from Vaughn. The Marshal took both to jail, Vaughn going in front and Kirk asked to walk behind. Kirk was admitted to bail on a bond of $500 while Vaughn charged with murder was held for examining trial which was held beginning at 10 a. m. Thursday.

Wiley Kirk Follows Vaughn

After his brother, Bob had been shot down, Wiley Kirk took the automatic from his shirt and ran after Vaughn, but it was said did not find opportunity to fire on account of the large number of people on the street. In a few minutes confusion was everywhere with people running for shelter as the guns cracked.

Bob Kirk was picked up from the pavement and placed in a Coleman-Elipt ambulance but died before reaching the hospital. According to witnesses it was said that Kirk tried to speak but was too sorely wounded to be understood. His right hand was moved by him slowly to his head and fell back again as the first ones arrived. No aid could be given.

It was said that trouble had been brewing for some time between the men because of attentions paid by Kirk to Vaughn's wife. Both men are fathers of families. Kirk being survived by a widow and five children and Vaughn being married with three children.

Funeral services for Kirk were held at 5 p. m., Thursday, March 9, 1932 at Liberty cemetery with Rev. C. C. Acree, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in charge of the services. Kirk was born September 18, 1902 in the Hanover community. He had lived in the Belmena community near Mayfield for about nine years. He was married to Miss Anna Malone in July of 1919. Kirk is one of twelve children and is survived by his father, six brothers and five sisters.

the B. & P. W. Club in their service work.

Mrs. Jim Burns Jr., president of the local Parent Teachers Association, gave an impromptu speech on the work of the P. T. A., as she had found it in Cameron and heartily expressed her willingness to cooperate with the B. & P. W. Club in their civic activities.

George Gott, of the Lions Club cheerfully pledged their club to cooperate in all worthwhile civic interests of the B. & P. W. Club.

A feature of the evening's entertainment was the Baptist male quartette who rendered songs in a delightful manner. The quartette is composed of Ray Burke, M. G. Cox, A. C. Strickland and John Hays.

Guests present were Mrs. Jim Burns, Mrs. A. C. Strickland, Mrs. F. Fahrendorf, Mrs. Wilma Ransover, Mrs. W. B. Denson, Mrs. E. B. Lovick, Mrs. W. E. Gaither, Miss Dell Hunt, Miss Georgia Walker, State Supervisor of the Education Department at Austin; Giles Avriett, George Gott and those composing the quartette.

Miss Lillian Atkinson was chairman of the program; Miss Rose Ruchar was hostess, and served a delightful salad plate with hot tea.

The ability and responsibility as a citizen was the keynote of all addresses. What business women can do to better the communities in which they live is being stressed this week in more than 1300 clubs in as many cities, stretching from coast to coast, and is inaugurated into his week's program and will be followed in some communities by a "Better Government" day. The observance is under the auspices of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's club, the largest national organization of business women in the world with which the local B. & P. W. Club is affiliated. National Business and Women's week first inaugurated in 1925 proved popular and last year the observance had the approval of President Hoover, the endorsement of 21 governors and of more than 200 mayors. This year there will be many more Mayors to endorse it; and many of the leading business men of Cameron have endorsed it by decorating their show windows in their places of business, in a suitable manner.

It is estimated that women control 40 per cent of the country's wealth. In 1931 there were 47,185 women employees in banking institutions. In many large corporations the women are large stockholders; and are beneficiaries of 80 per cent of life insurance policies in force in the United States.

W. G. Gillis

Judge, he is held in high esteem by them. His life has been one of usefulness and he has been found busy in every endeavor for better government and for the advancement of the most interests of his native country. An eloquent speaker, versed in law and enjoying great public confidence, this campaign for District Judge will awaken a deep and wide spread interest among the people.

A Democrat, Judge Gillis, has always taken an active interest in the affairs of his party, having served as County Chairman and at times when the fortunes of the party were at stake he responded to the call of duty and became its champion on the stump not only in Milam County but in other sections of Texas. His many friends point out that he offers the ideal as a candidate for he has always been loyal to the best traditions of his party and has espoused his conviction for Democratic principles when many were hiding behind expediency. He is both courageous and honorable and against his record there is nothing, both in public and private life. He wants to serve the people of his native county as District Judge and his friends believe that he is qualified in every way to serve in that place with distinction.

He submits his candidacy based upon his record as a good Democrat, a good lawyer, a good citizen and a desire to serve the people. He asks his friends over the county to lend their vote and support and assures them that if elected to this important office he will give back in service a measure of appreciation justifying the confidence thus placed in him.

Judge Gillis plans to make an active campaign and to see and talk to the voters about his race but in the event he is unable to see each one he takes this method of announcing his candidacy and to acquaint the people of the county with the desire he holds to serve them and with grateful appreciation for past favors and an earnest request for your vote and support, he enters the campaign and invites his friends to lend their support.

NEWSPAPER EDITOR IN RACE FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE

Is Native Texan and Publisher Of Two Newspapers

L. J. SULAK

TO THE VOTERS OF TEXAS:

I herewith announce my candidacy for Congressman-at-Large. In making this announcement I submit for your consideration the principles upon which I seek your suffrage. Being a native Texan, born and reared on a farm, and with my many years of newspaper experience and close contact with the people of all walks of life, I believe that I thoroughly understand the needs of the people of this state and that I can render efficient service in the National law-making body, if I am chosen as one of the three Congressmen-at-Large. If you agree with me on the main principles of my platform I shall highly value your vote and support.

1. I favor liberalization of our banking laws so as to maintain a sufficient volume of currency at all times to care for the needs of the country. The Federal Reserve Board should be charged with keeping in circulation at all times not less than $50.00 per capita and to increase this amount with the need of the banks to accommodate the marketing or producing of the nation's crops, or financing of the nation's commerce and industry.

2. I favor extension of power of the Federal Land Banks with a view of aiding home ownership and to protect the borrower so long as the value of the land given as security is maintained and the soil and buildings are properly cared for. In all Federal Land Bank foreclosures I favor giving the borrower two years in which to redeem his property at the mortgage price plus interest and costs.

3. I favor immediate cash payments of the adjusted compensation to veterans of the World War with a view of restoring prosperity. The Government owes the ex-service men approximately $2,250,000,000.00 for services rendered during the recent war. This is a just obligation of the Government and should be paid in cash. The man who shouldered a gun and went overseas to fight for American freedom while others remained at home, many of whom made large fortunes while the soldier fought for a dollar a day, should not be forced to borrow any portion of his adjusted compensation and to pay interest thereon. I favor issuing treasury notes (currency) sufficient to pay every ex-service man in full. This will add approximately $18.00 per capita to the money in circulation, bringing the total up to approximately $58.00 per capita, or about what it was immediately after the war when the country was at the peak of its prosperity. By thus increasing the medium of exchange, the demand for merchandise will start the factories to working, furnishing employment to idle workers, prices of farm products will rise, and business generally will be normal again. And the Government will have discharged its just obligation to the men who won the war for Democracy.

4. I favor a higher income and inheritance tax in the higher brackets with a view of breaking up the immense fortunes and decentralization of the country's wealth which is now in the hands of the few.

5. I favor modification of the Volstead Law. I am opposed to the return of the old saloon with its many evils, but I am convinced that prohibition under the present law is not enforceable and has contributed more toward corruption in government and degeneration of the morals of the country than any one thing. I believe the law should be modified so as to enlist the support of the majority of the people and make enforcement possible.

6. I favor consolidation of the useful bureaus and commissions and the abolishment of all those which have been created to give employment to the "lame ducks." This should be done in interest of efficiency and economy.

7. I favor development of our ports and of our navigable streams with a view of aiding industry and commerce, through lower freight rates.

8. I favor legislation promoting co-operative marketing of farm products. Agriculture is the basic industry of our nation and must be rehabilitated and maintained on a high plane in accordance with the American standard of living. Those who feed and clothe the world must be protected to the extent that they may enjoy every comfort others have, and that they be made secure against the ruthless exploitation of the gamblers and market manipulators who levy a tremendous toll upon everything the farmer produces.

9. I favor voluntary arbitration of labor disputes, by representatives chosen by each side of the controversy. I am unalterably opposed to granting injunctions in controversies arising between employers and employees.

10. I favor maintaining a Navy to the full strength of the five power treaty. I am not a militarist, but in view of the unsettled world condition, and with the lessons we have learned in the recent World War by not having sufficient ships manned by trained marines, failure to maintain our Navy to protect our nationals and our commerce and to properly prosecute any war of defense into which this country may be forced, would be nothing short of a crime against our country.

11. I am against cancellation or reduction of the war debts due our country by the foreign powers. There is a growing sentiment in Europe and in this country that we should reduce the amount of these war debts, or cancel them altogether. I shall never vote for any such measure. This country asked for no spoils of war and received none. And now our former allies are asking that we not only pay for our own part in the war, but for theirs also.

12. I am against short selling of farm products on the exchanges. I favor a law making it an offense punishable by confinement in the penitentiary at hard labor to sell farm products which the seller does not actually possess at the time of sale. The products of farm and ranch are often sold down below cost of production by those who do not possess, or do they expect to possess, any of such products. Such practices are criminal when indulged in to drive the price of the producers' commodity below cost of production, which is often done by the gamblers in these gambling dens called the exchanges.

13. I am opposed to centralization of our government in Washington and of our wealth in Wall Street and favor adequate laws to decentralize both. I believe in States Rights and am opposed to any further encroachment upon these rights by the Federal government.

Upon the above principles I take my stand and seek your suffrage.

Respectfully,
L. J. SULAK.

HOW TO KILL ANY CIVIC CLUB

Don't come to the meeting.

But if you do come, come late.

If the weather doesn't suit you, do not think of coming.

If you do attend a meeting, find fault with the work of the officers and other members.

Never accept an office—it is easier to criticize than to do things.

Get sore if you are not appointed on a committee; but if you are, do not attend committee meetings.

If asked by the chairman to give your opinion regarding some important matter, tell him you have nothing to say. After the meeting tell everyone how things ought to be done.

Do nothing more than is absolutely necessary; but when other members roll up their sleeves and willingly, unselfishly use their ability to help matters along, howl that the association is run by a clique.

Hold back your dues as long as possible, or don't pay at all.

Don't bother about getting new members. That's the secretary's job.

When a banquet is given, tell everybody money is being wasted on blow-outs which make a big noise and accomplish nothing.

When no banquets are given say

the association is dead and needs a can tied to it.

Don't ask for a banquet ticket until all are sold.

Then swear you've been cheated out of yours.

If you do get a ticket, don't pay for it.

If asked to sit at the speaker's table, modestly refuse.

If you are not asked, resign from the association.

If you don't receive a bill for your dues, don't pay.

If you receive a bill after you've paid, resign from the association.

Don't tell the association how it can help you; but if it doesn't help you, resign.

If you receive service without joining, don't think of joining.

If the association doesn't correct abuses in your neighborhood business, howl that nothing is done.

If it calls attention to abuses in your own, resign from the association.

Keep your eyes open for something wrong and when you find it, resign.

At every opportunity threaten to resign and then get your friends to resign.

When you attend a meeting, vote

to do something and then go home and do the opposite.

Agree to everything said at the meeting and disagree with it outside.

When asked for information, don't give it.

Curse the association for the incompleteness of its information.

Get all the association gives you but don't give it anything.

Talk co-operation for the other fellow with you; but never co-operate with him.

When everything else fails, curse the secretary.

Signed,
Johnny's brother,
Billious Bill the 2nd.

Reynolds Tobacco Co. Adopts Cotton Cloth For Stationery

Winston-Salem, N. C., March 7.—In line with the South's efforts to increase the use of cotton in all forms,
R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company of Winston-Salem, N. C., has announced that its stationery is now being made of cotton cloth.

The Reynolds Company, manufacturers of Camel Cigarettes Prince Albert smoking tobacco and other tobacco products, does a world-wide business and is one of the largest, if not the largest business firm in the country to go cotton.

The cotton cloth stationery is used exactly like paper, and readily takes ink, typewriting and printing. Cotton stationery used by the Reynolds Company is purchased in wholesale lots and advertises the United States' cotton crop to business associates in all parts of the world.

Quick COMFORT for fretful upset children

ALL children are subject to little upsets. They come at unexpected times. They seem twice as serious in the dead of night. But there's one form of comfort on which a mother can always rely;
good old Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation can't harm the tiniest infant. Yet mild as it is, it soothes a restless, fretful baby like nothing else. Its quick relief soon sees the youngster comfortable once more, back to sleep. Even an attack of colic, or diarrhea, yields to the soothing influence of Castoria.

Keep Castoria in mind, and keep a bottle in the house—always.
Give it to any child whose tongue is coated, or whose breath is bad.
Continue with Castoria until the child is grown!

For sale by all druggists. Be sure to get the genuine product with Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on wrapper, and this familiar name-plate:

Most Novel Valentine of the Year Is Made Entirely of Candy

Here, snapped at Miami Beach, Fla., is the year's most novel Valentine—a miniature Napoleon coach model made entirely of candy! It was constructed by Hans Bendl, famous pastry chef of Detroit, for presentation to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fisher, who acted as host and hostess last summer to the state winners in the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild coach-building competition. The coach is a replica of the model which thousands of boys are building in the second annual Guild competition, now under way, and its construction required more than a month. Its attractive custodian in this picture is Miss Evelyn Wink of Detroit, a member of the Florida winter colony.

THE BUSINESS WOMEN AND EDUCATION

By MRS. KATHRYN K. ROBBINS

The public has long since realized that to succeed in any field of endeavor, a certain amount of training is necessary. The person blessed with native ability certainly has the advantage over the person who depends upon training alone, but native ability plus training make a most competent workman in any field of endeavor. In early days there was little chance for a person, especially a woman, to make a choice of occupations for there were not very many kinds of work. Boys as a rule followed the trades of their fathers and girls became housewives without any preparation just as their mothers did. Today all is changed. The industrial era has brought a new day. The number of occupations has increased to more than 20,000 and practically every woman has an opportunity to choose her occupation just as a young man does.

Training for the business world involves many more aspects than the mere training of the mind. Personality is not a mysterious something which the fairies endowed us with when we came into this world. It is a thing of education on the part of the individual herself and it is her duty to make sure that the people with whom she does business like her in order that her firm may prosper. This one attribute on the part of employees make up what is known in the business world as good will. The good will of a business is the favor in which it is held by those whom it serves. It is built up by the persons who are connected with that business. A careless clerk, a rude office assistant, a dishonest errand girl, any one of forty persons who deal with the public may contribute his or her small part toward breaking down the good opinion which a customer holds of that firm. Good will can be built up by persons, and only by persons.

Another essential element in the education of the successful business woman is good manners which must be practiced on all occasions whether the business woman feels inclined to be pleasant or not. Her personal appearance, as regards neatness and charm; her bearing, whether slouchy or erect, her manners and her voice, whether pleasing or rude are all a definite part of the business woman's education that spell success or failure in her career. To be able to approach people easily, impress them favorably, and talk with them pleasantly is a resource of the highest importance to any woman who would live a happy, useful life in the business world. Yet such ability comes only with intention, practice and education. Emerson said "Very few people discover themselves during their lives." Certainly it is the duty of the successful business woman to discover herself. She must know her strength and her weakness and she must make the most of her discovery. More important than aptitude for work and a pleasing personality is character; what one is, not what one appears to be. To be successful in business, one must gain the confidence of those with whom one desires to transact business. To gain confidence, one must be honest, both with one's self and with others. Self-control is a very important factor in the development of character. Character is essential and incalculably valuable; it cannot be bought for any amount of money.

From a few of the points noted above, it will be observed that the education of the successful business woman involves a great deal more than training for accuracy in computations or a knowledge of correct form and spelling in letter writing or the handling of advertising matter. A sympathetic knowledge of the needs of others and of supplying those needs even before they are requested; a keen insight of human nature and the possession of sufficient initiative and good judgment to know when to speak and act or when to keep silent; all of these things constitute a very definite part of the business woman's education and thousands of women by the study of these rules and daily application of the principles involved in such an education have made themselves better business women for a better business world.

At a recent meeting of the State ex-students held at the Buccaneer Hotel in Galveston, celebrating their annual Independence Day banquet, Joyce Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Cox, was toastmaster for the occasion. At this time Dr. Bethel was elected president of the association and Mr. Cox vice-president.

INSURANCE AS INVESTMENT FOR WOMEN

By LEILA M. WOOLLEY

A recent survey made by an investment and banking concern of two of our largest American cities showed that about forty per cent of the individual wealth of the country is owned and controlled by women.

It is estimated that women are beneficiaries of about eighty per cent of the life insurance in force in the United States today. Women paying taxes on more than $3,000,000,000 of individual income annually. They are the actual majority of the stockholders in some of the largest corporations, and constitute between thirty and forty per cent of the bond and investment house customers. They receive about seventy per cent of all the estates left by man and something near sixty-five per cent of the estates left by women.

In New York a study of about 2000 aged persons receiving help from private charities showed that a majority of the women in addition to having been wives of moderately successful husbands, had also assisted in the family program by working, some as models, teachers, nurses, seamstresses and some in factories and other kinds of work.

Then I wonder if any of us, our families or friends will one of these days be one, of the one and a quarter million women past 65 years of age and dependent. Have we as business women taken the necessary precaution to safeguard the future of those near and dear to us, as well as ourselves. Are we including in our program monthly and weekly savings, even though it may be small, wisely and properly invested will make us comfortable when old age has come and we have no earning power.

It is said that more money has been saved through insurance than through banks. One of the Western coast life insurance company officials conducted an investigation of several hundred thousand savings accounts, and found that less than one per cent of the persons who started them maintained a definite schedule of depositing a certain sum at regular intervals, the majority abandoned their original program entirely or withdrew their savings. A small number were found to have left their accounts stationary throughout a period of years.

In comparing this with those who invested in insurance policies the percentage who maintained a definite program was found to be greatly in favor of the insurance buyers.

About ninety per cent of the estates now left come from life insurance. It is recognized by the best business people of the country as being one of the safest and surest investments one can make, it insures protection, it takes away anxiety and worry about the future, and the best and surest means of building up an estate with which to take care of old age.

Life insurance companies are growing more liberal in granting insurance to women, the amount of insurance that a woman may obtain is being steadily increased. The income policies now offered are especially attractive to women. Endowment, ten, fifteen and 20 year pay life and ordinary life all offer good investments for both men and women.

WOMEN OF PROMINENCE IN CLUB

By DELPHYA SCOTT

The growth of the Business and Professional Women's Club has been more rapid than any other women's club in America; and is now prospering in a number of foreign countries.

Texas has 65 Federated Clubs totaling a membership of more than 2500 members. The State Chairman gives a most encouraging report. Mary O. Lilyerstrom of Beaumont is the State President; Julia O'Brien of Brownsville is first vice president; Mrs. T. L. Gordon, Amarillo, second vice president; Flo Folmer, Tyler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Olga Eldridge, Amarillo, treasurer. All of these women are outstanding business women of Texas, who have made a success of their chosen professions.

Many clubs throughout the state and United States are trying to balance with committees in respect to size, vocation, as well as civic and social interests. These reports indicate progress in enrolling outstanding women as members of our Federation.

We have in our ranks and on our Board, lawyers, doctors, surgeons, teachers, financiers and women high in social and civic relations. The first lady of our land, Mrs. Hoover, wears our pin, as well as many leading women of America. We have in our membership a lady who received the highest honor conferred upon a woman by the President of the United States, having been appointed chairman of the Women's Division of the President's Emergency Committee for Employment; we count among our members the first woman supreme court judge in the world; seven of the eight congressmen of the last congress; the first woman governor of the United States, Mrs. Nellie Tayloe Ross of Wyoming; the first woman mayor of an American metropolis; the head of the Women's Bureau and head of the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor;

assistant director of education of the Bureau of Indian Affairs of the Department of Interior; the only woman holding a commission in the United States Army; chief nurse of the Navy Nursing Corps; Superintendent of nurses of the United States Public Health Service. Some other famous women on our membership roll are Chief of the Passport Division of the United States; Director of nursing service of the American Red Cross; President of the National Council of Women; President of the American Association of University Women; President of the National Retail Confectioners Association; National President of American Legion Auxiliary; Founder and President of the Southern Women's Educational Alliance; First Vice President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs; two past presidents of the National Education Association; former president of the National League of Women Voters; past president of Zonta and Aitrusa; past president of the American Women's Medical Association; past President of the National Vocational Guidance Association; national executive secretaries of Girl Scouts, Foreign Policy Association, National Women's Trade Union League, Foundation of Positive Health, National Congress of Parents and Teachers and secretary of Cause and Cure of War Conference; and many other women who have attained success and distinction in varied fields.

We can not all be presidents or secretaries of some national organization, but we can hold up the high ideals that our club stands for, and give the best in us; help those who are less fortunate; give what aid that we can to those in need, and strive to make "Better Business Women for a Better Business World."

SHARPE

By SANDERS AND BROWN

According to statements of Rufus Reichert, general manager of the Sharp Amateur Baseball League, the baseball team will be hosts to a dance and supper given at the Denker Hall next Saturday night, March 12.

Reichert stated that a small admission will be charged which will go for equipment for the baseball team. Everyone is urged to be present and have a good time.

Will Spiegel of this community spent most of the week touring South Texas. He states that the Rio Grande Valley has no panic nor winter. "Everyone down there has plenty of money and they seem to be well pleased with weather conditions," he said. "Cotton stalks around Port Lavaca are still blooming and the fruit in the Valley is very fine." Spiegel showed some nice oranges to the reporter which he pulled off the trees himself.

Most of the farmers planted corn here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

day, but from then on they were not able to do farm work on account of rain.

Judge J. W. Brown attended the Baptist Sunday School convention at Cameron Wednesday.

Frank Jackson spent the past week in Gay Hill visiting relatives.

Dennis McDonald, 20 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. McDonald of this community left here recently for Houston where he will start Spring training with the Houston Buffs. "Mack" has lived in this community all his life and has set a fine athletic example here for his followers. Last year he was star hitter on the Cameron Firemen team. "Mack's" many friends in Sharp join in wishing him a successful career in the baseball world.

School News

The Sharp senior girls basketball team was defeated last Friday night at the Milam county tournament by their old foes, the Rockdale Cagers and was "fizzed" out of their county title. The Sharp cagers, however, played stellar basketball throughout the season. The members of the girls team are: Whittington, Bice and Caffey, forwards; Ward and Wells, center and Petty and Byrd, guards. Whittington was "spark plug" for the team throughout the season.

Mrs. J. C. Hardy, who has been ill for some time seems to be better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hook of Temple spent the past week here visiting with friends and relatives.

S. F. BARCLAY

Mrs. Wm. Jeter received word of the death of her only brother, S. F. Barclay, who died at O'Donnell, Texas, Monday morning March 7. Interment was made in Reagan, Texas on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Barclay had visited his sister here a number of times and has many friends here who will regret to hear of his passing. He is survived by four children and one sister, Mrs. Jeter.

Misses Beth, Lilly Mag and Mabel Jeter and Tom Jeter attended the funeral from Cameron.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN OBSERVE NATIONAL WEEK

Cameron Members Contribute Much To Civic and Business Life of Community

By IVA WILSON

Lottie S. Bigbee

Mrs. Lottie S. Bigbee, for the past year, president of the Club and a charter member, has been very active in club work, holding office and serving on various committees during the life of the local organization. For the past two years, her efforts have been centered on beautification of the City Park, one of the major projects of the club. Last year, she was chairman of the park committee and has continued that activity thru this session as President. Mrs. Bigbee is persistent and efficient in the matters which she undertakes in behalf of the club and is making a splendid record in office this year. Second to her club activities, Mrs. Bigbee is "chief cook at the rookery," better known as the Big-bee House, popular private boarding establishment affording a pleasant home to many who have enjoyed her hospitality for the past several years.

Katherine Bailey

First Vice President of the local club is Miss Katherine Bailey, cashier for the Texas Power & Light Co. Miss Bailey, though one of the newest members, has endeared herself to the membership by her sweet manner and willingness to enter into any activity of the organization. Reared at Jones Prairie, Miss Bailey came to Cameron about a year ago from Abilene where she had completed a course in stenography at business college. While in Abilene she had also been connected with the Abilene Reporter and News. Prior to that time she had spent one year at Baylor College. Although young in years, Miss Bailey's business experience covers no small scope. "Texans, let's talk Texas," the catchy slogan of Miss Bailey's Company, is exemplified in the cashier, only she does not confine her continuous discourse to talk of the State.

Lucille Butts

Miss Lucille Butts, popular stenographer for Hon. W. G. Gillis, prominent Cameron Attorney, is second vice president of the organization. Her ready wit and humor have made her a favorite of the members. Her presence at a meeting of the social sort is a prophecy of the meeting's success. Miss Butts has had a varied business experience which took her to several cities in this state and to other states. She received business training at Nixon Clay Business College at Austin. While there, she was employed at the State Capitol for some time and was connected with other important businesses. She was born and reared at Maysfield, removing to Cameron with her family a number of years ago. Lucille always has a friendly greeting for her acquaintances and is a faithful member of the Club.

Mrs. Gladys Watson

An outstanding administration in the club was that of Mrs. Gladys Watson as President in 1929-30. Mrs. Watson is a woman of unusual ability being office supervisor and cashier for the Texas-Louisiana Power Company. She has a most pleasing personality and the happy faculty of appeasing the grievance of any customer by reminding them that "Water is the cheapest thing they can buy." Aside from her business duties and club work, Mrs. Watson is very active in church and Sunday School work and most popular with the young people in their social activities. She is a talented musician and with the recording secretaryship this year, she is also serving as director of music, contributing largely to the pleasure of any social gathering.

Lillian Atkinson

As Corresponding Secretary, Miss Lillian Atkinson, with a long record of activities for the Club, is one of the most popular and best loved members. Miss Atkinson is an active member of the firm of the Atkinson-Stallworth Insurance Agency and "Fights fire for a living." She was formerly County Clerk of Milam county, serving in that capacity for two terms. She has the distinction of being the only woman to ever hold that office in Milam county. Beginning her career as a school teacher, Miss Atkinson has engaged in various lines of commercial work, including stenography, book keeping and abstracting. Socially, speaking, Miss Atkinson is the chief coach for the gang in Contract Bridge, "ranking second only to Ely Culberson in Authority."

Anne Stallworth

Miss Annie Stallworth, first president of the local club, prior to federation, was this year elected "Watchdog" of the club treasure chest. She is well qualified for the office, having served an "apprenticeship" for this local position by being for two terms, treasurer of the State organization. She was also honored by being appointed on a national committee of Business Women's Clubs. Miss Stallworth has a very interesting collection of Indian relics and fossil remains gathered in Milam county since the club has sponsored this project. Aside from club activities Miss Stallworth has been engaged in title work for the past 25 years and for the past seven years, she has been principal stockholder and manager of the Fidelity Abstract Company.

Ennis Turner

Miss Ennis Turner, a late addition to the membership, for the past eight years has held a responsible position with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, beginning as switchboard operator and receiving several promotions. She at this time is cashier of that company. Miss Turner is a graduate of Yoe high school, a young lady of pleasing personality and impresses the public with the knowledge that she is thoroughly capable of handling the duties entrusted to her. She is an enthusiastic member, always ready to enter into any of the club activities and as such has endeared herself to the hearts of the membership. Though Ennis is short in stature, she is long and strong on characteristics of the true business woman.

Delphya Scott

The club "scandal" and other important news events are dispensed by Miss Delphya Scott, veteran newspaper woman of Cameron, who since organization of the club has been publicity chairman. She has competently represented the local club in State and National Magazines and the home town papers. Miss Delphya has spent many years in Milam County and is well acquainted with the people whom she so feelingly brings before the public in her articles. She is one of the best loved members of the club, having made for herself a warm place in the hearts of the membership with her kindly understanding and sweet spirit of fellowship. Miss Scott is owner and competent manager of the Cameron Retail Merchants Association, performing a useful and indispensable service to business firms of this city and state.

Woman Murder Victim and Where She Was Found

The body of Mrs. Joe Caporina, known to police as Pauline Johnson, was found last week in a puddle of water off a side road six miles from Houston. Her head was crushed by repeated blows from a blunt instrument, each of which pierced her brain. Police believe gangsters "put her on the spot" because they elieved she was a stool pigeon. Pictured above is Mrs. Caporina at the left, while officers in the large picture are shown moving her body from the place where it was found.

pensible service to business firms of this city and state.

Rose Rischar

The only member of the club who has served two terms as President is Miss Rose Rischar, who this year is chairman of the Health Committee. The club was federated under Miss Rischar in 1927; and in 1930-31, she was again named President. Miss Rischar has been active during her several years of club work and thru her leadership many projects have met with success. She was responsible for the club's fostering the study of geology and Indian Lore which has continued a major activity of the club women. Miss Rischar represented the local organization at a national meeting held in Louisiana, and at the State Convention at Amarillo this year. She is anaesthetist at the Cameron hospital, where she is associated with her brother, Dr. E. Rischar, well known surgeon. Prior to her present position, she completed a nurses training course at the hospital. She attended St. Mary's Academy at Nauvoo, Illinois.

Kathryn Lovick

Miss Kathryn Lovick, the baby of the organization, is acting chairman of the Emblem Committee. This young lady is one of Cameron's most popular, and in her capacity as cashier for the Community Natural Gas Company, is privileged to meet any of her friends daily. Having attended 4-C Business College at Waco where she received business training, Miss Lovick is well qualified for the position which she has held with the Gas Company for the past several years. Prior to her present work, she served as a reporter for the Temple Daily Telegram. Miss Lovick was honored by the American Legion since being affiliated with the Club, when chosen to represent the local post at a state meeting in Groesbeck as "Doughboy Sweetheart."

Mrs. Lester Glass

Mrs. Lester Glass, who recently moved her membership from Belton, is a most welcomed addition to the club. She has been a member of the organization for several years. Mrs. Glass and her husband came to this city to manage the Cameron Florist Shop. With her friendly and courteous manners, they have in this short time made many friends in this city. "Say it with Flowers" enables Mrs. Glass to have many "Blooming Friendships."

Winnie Bethune

Miss Winnie Bethune, who joined the club this year, came to Cameron from Poplarville, Mississippi, to be associated with her cousins, Messrs. H. P. and Cecil Culpepper as book keeper for the Milam Candy Company. With her sweet and dignified mien she was quick to make friends in this city.

Kathryn K. Robbins

County Superintendent Mrs. Kathryn K. Robbins, is another of the Club members of long standing with a lengthy record of active service. Her participation on a program or in a social for the club is an assurance of good response and a successful evening. This year, as a delegate from the club to the State Convention at Amarillo, she brought back a glowing account of the splendid meeting. As superintendent of Milam County Schools, Mrs. Robbins has been an outstanding figure in County and State educational meetings. She has probably done more for the schools of this county than any other one person, having directed the grouping of school units in order that the rural child might have nearer equal advantages with children in the towns. Her administration has been a demonstration of what women can bring to the business world.

monstration of what women can bring to the business world.

Iva Wilson

Miss Iva Wilson, author of this article, has been a member of the club for over two years. She was born and reared in this county and since graduation from Yoe high school attended T. W. C. F. T. Worth for one year. She has been society editor of the Cameron Enterprise for two years.

Cora Cammer

For the past thirty years, Mrs. Cora Cammer, one of the club's most faithful members, has served as president of the United Charity organization of Cameron. She has administered to the sick and needy during these many years, turning a patient and sympathetic ear to cries of the unfortunate. Though never a club officer, Mrs. Cammer's unassuming disposition has made her a popular committee-woman and she has served willingly and efficiently. The mother of nine children, Mrs. Cammer is owner and manager of the Cammer Tailor Shop here. She has resided in Cameron for about 45 years.

Willyne Hyde

Miss Willyne Hyde, secretary-treasurer of the Central Loan Company, was a charter member of the Business and Professional Women's Club. She has been an active worker in the organization, responding readily to demands made upon her. Miss Hyde is a very successful business woman and is a stockholder in the Company for which she works. Prior to her present position, she held a responsible place with the Citizens National Bank.

Mollie A. Moore

An honorary member of the club is Miss Mollie A. Moore, one of the best known women in this city for her many charitable works. Miss Moore was chosen the most distinguished citizen of Cameron by the Edwin Hardy

Post No. 9 of the American Legion and was the only woman in Texas chosen for that honor, similar contests having been conducted by numerous other cities. Various sections of 34 states conducted the Legion Contests and of that entire number, only three women were honored with the selection. This distinguished member of the club is prominent in civic and religious works in Cameron and whatever task she undertakes, she is faithful and seemingly untiring in her efforts.

Leila M. Woolley

Having been tax assessor of Milam county for more than ten years, Miss Leila M. Woolley, who is now a very successful insurance woman, is one of the best known women in Milam county. She did tax work for over 15 years and gave splendid administrations as assessor. Miss Woolley has been active committeewoman in the club and is a member of the official board. A native of Milam county, she has spent most of her life in Cameron. She is a representative of the Southwestern Life Insurance Co. Dependability and ready service are phrases which might easily apply to Miss Woolley.

NOTED AMERICAN WOMEN

By LILIAN ATKINSON

Displayed conspicuously, in windows of various business houses of Cameron, this week, are the pictures of twelve of America's outstanding women. These women were selected as representatives of all classes and callings, from homemakers to scientists and women holding the highest degrees and honors conferred by our principal colleges and universities.

This is being done in celebration of our National Business Women's Week in which time, women all over America are reviewing the achievements of women in the affairs of our National life. We feel that we, as women, have merited the respect and confidence of the business world, and we point with pride to these twelve women, as representatives of a vast number of sincere, earnest women, who honestly desire to be of service in their age, and to mean something in the growth of our Nation.

Jane Addams

First among those selected was Jane Addams. What school child has not heard of Jane Addams, of Hull House fame? A woman who has sacrificed her entire life to bring some joy and brightness into the lives of literally thousands of unfortunates.

Naturally endowed with a keen sense of the beautiful, gifted and talented, this woman gave up a life of ease and pleasure, to live in the poorest district of Chicago, among the poorest and most degraded people of that city, with the sole purpose of trying to help those more unfortunate than herself. Her heart had been touched by the sorrow and poverty of these people, and she has devoted her entire life and spent her entire fortune for their relief. No one could be more surprised than Jane Addams, at the honors and fame which she has attained, for her writings and teachings have made her the greatest authority on sociology, today.

Schumann-Heink

The whole world is familiar with the olden voice of our beloved Ernestine Schumann-Heink, and the whole world is no less familiar with the great, loving heart of this noble woman. Her early struggles to acquire a musical education, to obtain engagements, were all hampered by the direct poverty under which she lived. Even during her first unfortunate marriage, these conditions continued. Nothing seemed to daunt this brave woman. Her courage, her love of life and humanity seemed to have grown stronger under adversity. America has long since adopted her as her greatest singer.

Among her most cherished possessions, is a gold star medal, this medal has five stars, one gold for the son she lost in the cantonments. Her medal might well carry another gold star for the son who perished in a German submarine. With her heart torn with sorrow for her divided family, this great woman threw her whole sole and energy into her war relief work, and many thousands of our boys learned to call her mother and to love her.

At seventy, today, she is as active and full of plans for the future as ever. She still sings in concerts, but spends most of her time in training the young artists who aspire to follow in her footsteps.

Mary E. Woolley

Our local club feels an especial interest in the third of these women chosen for this honor; Miss Mary E. Woolley is a kinsman of our own Miss Leilla Woolley. Miss Woolley has been President of Mount Holyoke College for thirty years and has seen that institution grow from a student body of 450 to a limited enrollment of one thousand.

Miss Woolley is a true educator, inspiring all who come under her influence with the importance of living beautifully. Her influence has followed her girls all over the world, and she has seen them filling positions of trust and honor in all countries of the world.

Aside from her great passion for teaching, Miss Woolley has devoted a great deal of time and thought to work for the prevention of war. As a worker in his cause, she is known internationally, and the list of important conferences she has attended is as long as the degrees awarded her by colleges and universities.

She enjoys the distinction of being the only woman to serve as a delegate to the Peace Conference at Geneva, at which place she is, at present engaged in trying to find a solution of the war problem.

Grace Coolidge

Recognizing that there is no higher calling for women than that of homemakers and hostesses, Grace Coolidge was chosen to represent that vast crowd of noble women who are so vitally a part of our commonwealth and who contribute so much to the welfare of the nation. She, like so many others equally gifted with those qualities so eminently fitting them for this great work, might have spent her days, as these noble women are doing everywhere, unknown and unsung, but for the fact that she became the mistress of the White House, and willingly or unwillingly, became prominent. Of a retiring disposition, Mrs. Coolidge has never sought publicity, but because of her gracious manner and charming personality, became one of the most popular women and hostesses who has ever graced the White House as First Lady.

After graduating from the University of Vermont, Grace Goodhue became interested in the Clarke School for the blind, and entered that institution as a teacher, remaining there until her marriage to Calvin Coolidge.

On leaving the White House, the Coolidge family retired to private life, where as a wife and mother, friend and neighbor, Mrs. Coolidge leads a quiet, unobtrusive life, noted everywhere for her gracious friendliness.

Among her talents, she is considered a good poetess, having published a number of poems of merit, among them the best known is entitled "The Open Door," written on the fifth anniversary of the death of her son, John.

Willia Cather

Willia Cather has been acclaimed by the most distinguished critics of her time, as the greatest living American novelist, and those who are familiar with her works, can readily believe this, for we have no more forceful, no better written nor more realistic stories in the English language than "One of Ours," the Pulitzer Prize Winner of 1932, "Death Comes for the Archbishop," "The Professor's House," "My Antonia" and many others. Miss Cather writes of folks as they are, just people that you and I know and who might easily live next door to us.

Moving to Nebraska when just a child, Miss Cather carried the traditions of Old Virginia into a country occupied by a foreign population of Bohemians, Norwegians, Russians and others. She became interested in these people, made friends with their children, and grew up in this free country, imbibing something from the broad prairies and wide skies that is reflected in her writings.

Her first literary work was for her college paper. She began writing little sketches of these people back home. After graduating, she taught school, and during this period, she began writing for McClure's Magazine, then at the height of its popularity.

Later, she was offered the position of assistant editor of this magazine, but left that work because it interfered with her writing.

Miss Cather is a hard worker, a versatile writer and each of her books demonstrate her ability in a different field. Whatever she may write, you can be sure it will be a piece of superb workmanship.

Martha Berry

"Great things from small beginnings grow" is certainly true in the case of Martha Berry. Beautiful, frail, aristocratic, just home from a finishing school, she little dreamed that she was starting a great school that would give countless boys and girls their only way of escape out of ignorance and poverty, on that quiet Sunday afternoon, when she wandered down to her old log cabin playhouse of her childhood. She began playing on the old melodion left there, when shy mountain children timidly slipped into the room to listen and were induced to join in the singing. From this small beginning, she first organized a Sunday School, which gradually grew into the great school it is today.

She has given her whole life and fortune to this work, and by her eloquence and earnestness, she has been able to persuade people of means and many not so wealthy to contribute to the cause, until she has built up one of the finest industrial schools in the whole of the United States.

It is a little singular that two of these celebrated women should have relatives among our citizens. Miss Berry is a cousin of Mrs. Pearl Clement.

Carrie Chapman Catt

Women everywhere owe a great debt to Carrie Chapman Catt, who has fought so many battles for her sex. She believed in women and in their right to a voice in the government and a position in the business world, and to her leadership, women, today, owe many of the civic rights and privileges they now enjoy. She it was, who took up the torch thrown down by Susan B. Anthony, Julia Ward Howe, Lucy Stone and Amelia Bloomer.

She has been President of the National American Woman Suffrage Association since 1900. This Association had acquired so much property, it has not yet been able to liquidate and disband. She has spoken for woman suffrage in every state in the Union and in every important country in Europe and Asia. Suffrage for women was sure to come, but without the efforts of Carrie Chapman Catt, that day would have been long delayed, and still this woman works on that women may be free to be women, even as men are free to be men.

Since this series of famous women has been compiled, death has claimed one of them; Minnie Maddern Fiske. Standing preeminently at the head of her profession, as an actress, she brought to the stage a fineness, a nobility that added no small part to her fame. Forunate are those among us who were privileged to see her in some of her characterizations.

Cecelia Beaux

Cecilia Beaux is one of the great portrait painters of the world, a field once considered as belonging exclusively to men. Her work hangs in most of the famous art galleries of the world, and her many medals testify to the respect in which she is held by her own profession.

Perhaps her most important commission came in 1919, when she was asked by a committee of prominent men and women to go abroad and paint three great war heroes, Clemenceau, Admiral Lord Beatty and Cardinal Mercier, these pictures to be presented to the United States government.

Miss Beaux also counts writing among her many talents, and she is the author of several books.

Helen Keller

Helen Keller stands in a class by itself. Blind and deaf since nineteen months of age, this wonderful woman has become one of the most famous women of all time.

She is a graduate of Radcliff College, an almost superhuman accomplishment, and since leaving college has written seven books, the most popular among them is "The Story of My Life."

After she was ten years of age, she learned to speak by feeling the lips and throat muscles of her teacher, and now she lectures all over the United States.

Today her work for the American Foundation for the Blind occupies most of her time, however, she takes time to make motion pictures, write, meet interviewers and engage in every other enterprise any normal woman might engage in.

Grace Abbott

Grace Abbott, head of the Childrens Bureau in Washington, the patient, tireless worker for better conditions for mothers and children in the United States is known to many thousands. She is a woman of vision, and that vision is for a safeguarded child life that will make for stronger and better citizens. She has faith, and this faith has inspired her in her effective plea for effective legislation looking to that end.

As proof that this great woman is known and appreciated all over the country, President Hoover was urged by letters from every section of the United States to appoint her Secretary of Labor, when that position was vacant. Never before has there been a demand from both men and women that a woman should be given a place in the Cabinet.

To such women as Grace Abbott, does the world owe most of its forward movements, and she may yet live to see her ideas and ideals in operation.

Florence Rena Sabin

Few women go in for medical research, for it has been only the last fifty years that medical schools have been open to women, yet, even in these few years, women have proved their fitness, their skill, their patience, their accuracy and their intuition for this work.

Dr. Florence Rena Sabin heads the list of these women. She has the distinction of being the only woman ever elected to the National Academy of Science, and the only woman ever elected to the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research.

Rena Miner, a Vermont girl, went to Colorado to teach school during the great gold strike and there met George Kimball Sabin. After their marriage, Mrs. Sabin was sent to Vermont to college and by the time of her graduation, had determined to become a doctor. She entered the fourth class of women admitted to John Hopkins Medical School and from the beginning attracted attention of her professors.

After graduation she was resident physician in John Hopkins Hospital for a year. From this position, she went on from honor to honor. By 1917, Miss Sabin was full Professor of Histology in John Hopkins University. In 1924, largely because of her work on the origin of the blood vessels, she was elected to the National Academy of Science, which numbers only 250 members of whom she is the only woman. In 1925, she was called to the Rockefeller Institute—again as the only woman member—where she has charge of a group working on the problem of tuberculosis.

She has a marvellous personality, faith and devotion that leads her on to her goal with courage and strength loving her neighbor as herself.

BARN YARD FOWL PARTY

Little Miss Mary Ellen Cottle was a delightful hostess Saturday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 to a "Barn Yard Fowl" party, at the apartments of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cottle in the Commercial Hotel.

Guests were selected from the boys and girls of her grade in school.

During the games candy Easter eggs were passed; later pecan pie topped with whipped cream and cherries were served. Favors were colored Jax and balls in tarlton bags.

MONDAY NIGHT BRIDGE CLUB

A St. Patrick motif was attractively carried out in the decorations when Mrs. Earle Burke was hostess this week to the Monday Night Bridge Club. Table accessories lent added charm to the setting where three tables were placed for games.

High trophy was made by Mrs. B. Miller. Mrs. Mack Fox was content with low score, both receiving novel-

ton's two hundredth birthday. A large handsome picture of George Washington rested on the radio. Attractive home life picture scenes of the illustrious man were noted at vantage points; while the historic cherry tree with hatchet, the handy work of Mrs. Martha Shepherd, was much admired and rested near a splendid equestrian picture of Washington.

In the absence of the regent, Mrs. R. H. McIntosh, vice regent, Mrs. Tiff Moore presided. Mrs. T. V. Adams chaplain, led the opening exercises. Roll call was answered by giving "Rules on Good Behavior" by Washington.

Assisted by Miss Mozelle Bigbee, the hostess served ice cream topped with strawberries and white squares of cake.

AUXILIARY MEETS

The Woman's Auxiliary of All Saints Mission met at the rectory for their monthly program on Monday afternoon.

The program consisted of a review of the first three chapters of the study book, "Building a Christian Nation," given by Mrs. Love.

On account of the Lenten season, instead of serving the usual refreshments, the hostess passed around a plate containing slips of paper on each of which was printed an item relating to religious life. These were read aloud by the Auxiliary members.

METHODIST CHURCH

Prof. Waggoner of Southwestern University, will preach here next Sunday, which will be the last of his series of sermons here for the present time. On March 20, Rev. A. A. Leifeste, Commissioner of Blinn Memorial College, Brenham, will preach Sunday morning, March 20 and Rev. E. L. Ingram, Presiding Elder of Marlin District, will begin a Pre-Easter meeting Sunday evening.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The ladies of the Presbyterian church met at the church Monday afternoon for Bible study led by Mrs. Sam Henderson, taking her lesson from the book of James, which completes their study as outlined. They will take up the study of the book of Hebrews the first Monday in next month.

HISTORY CLUB

The Cameron History Club had as hostess Tuesday afternoon Mrs. T. S. Henderson and daughter, Miss Mary Lake Henderson, at their home on West Seventh Street.

This meeting closed an interesting study on India. Mesdames John C. Martin and J. P. Love had charge of the program.

At the close of the afternoon Misses Mary Lake and Winnie Henderson very delightfully poured hot tea and served a light refreshment course.

FORTY-TWO CLUB

A pretty affair on the social calendar of last week was the Forty-Two Club party given by Mrs. Jack Lewis at her attractive home on West Main Street. The hostess chose a pretty St. Patrick color scheme featuring Irish emblems with white narcissus blooms throughout the home, in bowls, baskets and vases with clover and shamrock greenery.

Game accessories embellished the five tables that were laid in chosen colors. Rebecca Joe, the dainty little daughter of the hostess, dressed in a green and white pajama suit, passed the score cards to guests. Many games were enjoyed and later St. Patrick luncheon sets were laid on game tables centered with an Irish doll dressed in green and white.

The hostess was assisted in serving a salad plate with hot tea by Miss Ouida McKissick.

Other than club members present were Mrs. George McGee Jr., Mrs. J. L. Marek, Mrs. Conn Miller, Mrs. L. L. Blaylock, Mrs. Pope Sapp, Mrs. Charlie McDermott, Mrs. Alex Triggs, Mrs. W. R. Hoover, Mrs. Bert Miller, Mrs. Walter Sharpe and Mrs. Guy Pope.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Early spring flowers adorned the home of Mrs. Rush Thomas when she entertained the Friday Bridge Club. Beautiful potted plants rested at attractive points and score cards further embellished the chosen color scheme.

A number of games were enjoyed, followed with the hostess serving a delectable salad course with tea on large trays. Mrs. Vernon McIntyre sister of the hostess, assisted in the hospitalities of the occasion.

C. Y. Meyers Receives Promotion

It is with extreme pleasure and deep regret that we announce the removal of C. Y. Meyers, Field Executive of the Heart of Texas Council, to the Gulf Coast Area Council where he is to take over the duty of executive of that council about March 15.

Mr. Meyers has long been active in the council, having been Scoutmaster at Rosebud for several years before taking his present position as Field Executive. It will be with much regret that his many friends will receive this notice of his departure from their midst.

We all are glad that you have received your merited advancement in Scouting, but "Charlie Yoe" we will certainly miss you.

On Tuesday evening, March 1, a splendid Scout meeting was held in the public school building at Burlington. The meeting was called by the troop committee for the purpose of acquainting the citizens and particularly the fathers and mothers in that neighborhood with the plan and purpose of Scouting.

The large crowd that assembled filled to capacity two connecting rooms in the school building. Mr. Robinson, Falls County chairman presided, addresses were made by Mr. Robinson, C. Y. Meyer, Scout Executive and Hon. W. G. Gillis, chairman of Court of Honor of Cameron.

Judge Gillis' address covered the History and Purposes of Scouting, particularly how Scouting works out in home and school, in church and community life, how it is the means of moulding character and building up ideal citizenship.

The speaker pointed out that Scouting was non political, non military and non sectarian, that in its practice boys grow up to be well rounded citizens, physically, morally and spiritually.

All the messages were cordially received and many of those present expressed their interest in and pledged their cooperation with Scouting.

Troop 32, Ben Archer, Scoutmaster
No official meeting was held last week on account of the illness of Mr. Archer, who was suffering with flu. At this writing he is much improved and hopes to be with the Scouts of his troop next Friday.

However, some of the Scouts of Troop 32 have a taste for sweets, and they can scent candy a mile off. That accounts for their joining Troop 53, late that evening, ask them about it.

Troop 52, J. A. Lindle, Scoutmaster
The regular weekly meeting was held by Troop 52 on last Friday and the attendance was good.

This was stunt night and stunts for the occasion were conducted by troop committeeman, Rudolph Richter.

Several Scouts of Troop 52 have entered the "Model Coach Building Contest. This coach building though difficult is very interesting as well as instructive.

Any boy who finishes his model will be justly proud of his achievement and even if he does not receive an award, he will have learned a lesson in perseverance that will be worth his effort. Scouts who enter this contest are deserving of public encouragement.

Troop 53, J. W. Haygood, Scoutmaster
Seventeen Scouts enjoyed a hike to Ledbetter Park, last Friday. After supper they enjoyed a candy feast provided by the Milam Candy Co. A number of Scouts of Troop 32 joined in the fun. After one game the nerther came on and everyone beat it for home and dry clothes.

the Corinth Home Demonstration Club Monday afternoon, March 7. Miss Bartholomew, County Home Agent, met with the club. There were ten club members present and a large number of visitors, among whom were Messrs. George Banzhaf, County Agent and Dawson, Specialist from U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Biological Survey.

The subjects for the afternoon's program were "Spring Care of Orchards." After club members had talked of "Cultivation" and "Pruning" Mr. Banzhaf gave interesting and instructive talks on these subjects and on "Special Fertilization" and "Inter-Dropping." "Diseases and their Control." He then prepared a spray mixture and demonstrated pruning and spraying the fruit trees. After this demonstration the crowd returned to the house where Mr. Dawson spoke at length on rat control, also means by which the rabbits can be poisoned or trapped, all of which information one needs to know as both the rat and rabbit are quite destructive and the former a menace to health. In answer to roll call the club members gave reports of numbers of fruit trees, grape vines, berries, shrubs, shade trees, rose gardens, cutting beds, lawns, hedges were planted and walks made. Miss Bartholomew talked of plans for the "Spring Meat Show" to be held in the early part of April in Cameron. The meeting then adjourned after which the hostess served "colaches" cakes, other sweets and cocoa. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. O. J. Hailes.

National Business Women's Week, March 6 to 12, is being celebrated in Cameron this week.

The Cameron Club and its members are contributing reading matter to this issue of The Herald and this edition will be found an interesting paper to preserve for future study. In addition to the news matter the club women have placed a number of advertisements in this issue.

Business women throughout the nation are lending their co-operation this week to the celebration and among the features of interest about the program this week are the window displays arranged by business houses in honor of the women.

In this issue will be found a number of contributions of interest bearing upon the membership and activities of the club, each member receiving mention and in addition officers are contributing articles of interest.

COURT HERE ACCEPTS COMMISSIONER'S OFFER

COMMISSIONER'S COURT VOTES APPROVAL OF BANKING DEPARTMENT'S PLAN

Office of Commissioner's Court of Milam County, Texas

Now on this 29th day of February, A. D., 1932, there came on for consideration the written proposition of the Commissioner of Banking, in reference to the account of Milam County against said Commissioner for the funds of Milam County on deposit in The Cameron State Bank at the time it failed and it being ascertained that the indebtedness of said failed bank to this County for the State, County and School Funds is approximately in the sum of $108,000.00, and the Commissioner of Banking has offered to this Court that if this Court will agree to account for and allow him a credit on said claim for the face value of the amount of collateral securities of said Bank held by the Court to secure said Bank's indebtedness to this Court in said sum above mentioned, that the said Commissioner will then allow and permit this bank to have and will pay to it regular and equal dividends on said sum of approximately $108,000.00 or the true amount due to this Court, until such dividends, together with said $70,000.00, shall equal the entire indebtedness of said Cameron State Bank to this Court for such funds.

The Court having fully considered such matter and such offer, has, by

W. G. GILLIS CANDIDATE FOR DISTRICT JUDGESHIP

WIDELY KNOWN CITIZEN AND ATTORNEY WANTS TO SERVE PEOPLE OF MILAM COUNTY

Graham Gillis, widely known Cameron attorney and citizen, is a candidate for District Judge for Milam County, subject to action of the Democratic Primary election to be held on July 23, 1932.

In offering for District Judge for Milam County, Judge Gillis finds that hundreds of friends throughout the county have offered their support and influence and his announcement will be received with interest among all the people who know him and believe that he can bring to the Judiciary a measure of service that will justify their fine confidence and make available legal knowledge and talents well suited for distinguished public service.

Graham Gillis is a native of Milam County and his life has been spent whenever possible in the service of the people who know and appreciate the qualities of his character. In early years after sufficient training in school he became a teacher and later served the county as Superintendent of the public schools. He was early attracted to the profession of law and was admitted to the bar and became one of Texas' best known attorneys and today enjoys a large practice and the esteem of the profession in this and other counties. He was elected and served for a number of years as County Judge and he feels grateful for the measure of public confidence expressed by the people in other years in trusting to his care the important administrative duties of these offices.

Judge Gillis wants to serve the people of Milam County as District Judge. His friends believe that he can bring to the Judiciary a measure of legal knowledge that will enhance the service of the court. In announcing his candidacy he feels grateful for the hundreds of appeals made by people that he enter the race. They know him and they believe in his integrity and training and they have watched his career with appreciation dating back to a lad who first turned his eyes to the conquest of problems and later in increased knowledge and growth when public service called him and when the large places of citizenship beckoned. Graham Gillis has never shirked a responsibility nor has he ever failed to respond to the call of duty, his friends point out. By education and training he would bring to the office of District Judge ripe experience as a jurist and his knowledge of law would enable him to serve with honor and distinction.

Born and reared among the people he now wants to serve as District

Can Recover $15,000 From Bond Co. in Bank Shortage Says Camp; Meeting Held

Shortage found by auditors for the state banking department at the Cameron State Bank will enable the Commissioner of Banking to recover $15,000 from bonding companies, it was said by E. A. Camp, attorney for the Commissioner, addressing a meeting of the depositors of the failed bank in the district court room in Cameron, Tuesday at 2 p. m.

This sum which is taken to indicate the amount of bond executed for those liable for the shortage, will be paid into the hands of the Banking Commissioner of Texas and in turn pro-rated to depositors when the affairs of the bank are adjusted sufficient to pay a return.

Mr. Camp did not say that the $15,000 would pay back all the discrepancy found by the auditors.

The Cameron State Bank closed on December 17, 1931 and the meeting held on Tuesday was called by the committee for the depositors of which Dr. J. L. Denson is chairman.

In a circular issued calling this meeting the County Judge and four Commissioners were asked to be present but they did not attend, it was said, instead holding a meeting in an adjoining room at which Dr. Denson presented the view of depositors as compared with the view of the Court taken in accepting the proposal of the Banking Commissioner which would guarantee the county against loss.

Freeman Presides

J. K. Freeman, a depositor, stated the purpose of the meeting and among other things said that when the Bank failed, Milam County had on deposit in the Bank, the sum of $108,500.00 with bonds placed with the County in the sum of $70,000.00 for security. He explained that the

FUTURE FARMERS HOLD FATHER-SON BANQUET; STRESS FARM TRAINING

The agriculture students of Yoe high school were hosts to their dads at a Father and Son Banquet held in the Ada Henderson building on Friday, March 4, 1932. The girls of the Home Economics department served a plate with ice cream. Johnnie Richter, president of the local chapter, presided over the meeting. Mr. V. A. Morrison and Mr. O. L. Kidd were the chief speakers of the evening. They stressed the need for special training in modern methods of farming and complimented the local school on the progress that had been made this year. Others who made short talks were Rush Thomas, Dr. W. R. Newton and Supt. T. A. Fisher. This very successful banquet was sponsored by the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America. Officers of the local chapter are: president, Johnnie Richter; vice president, Lawrence McClaren; secretary, Coleman Duncum; treasurer, Bailey Duncum; reporter, Boyd Chamberlain; advisor, A. C. Strickland. There were 55 in attendance. Music for the occasion was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Cox, assisted by Frank Newton and Troval Stall.

The list of guests follows: Dr. W. R. Newton, Messrs. W. A. Morrison, Rush Thomas, O. L. Kidd, T. A. Fisher, Guy T. Newton, Shep McClaren, S. Duncum, J. W. Seidl, J. D. Martin, A. F. McGregor, W. E. ### APPLICATIONS READY FOR FEDERAL CROP LOANS

WM. COBB SECRETARY FOR COMMERCIAL CLUB ASSISTING FARMERS

Supplies have been received and applications of farmers are being filed for loans from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, at headquarters of Commercial Club in Cameron; the State Bank at Rockdale and the State Bank at Buckholts and Thomas Store at Gause.

Several completed sets of papers were taken up by E. E. Brown, district agent, at the board meeting in Cameron, Tuesday which he said were the first completed in the district and probably the first in Texas.

Additional supplies were received Wednesday which will enable all qualified borrowers to be served promptly.

Loans are being made to farmers who are unable to get loans at banks. Tenant farmers must get their land lords to waive their prior lien.

Most loans, according to W. M. Cobb, secretary of the Commercial Club are made on a basis of two dollars to three dollars an acre and even less, the borrowers seeming to want to get along on the least possible amount. One dollar an acre is advanced for general purposes, a dollar an acre for feed, if needed, and the necessary amount for seed. Provision is made to buy fertilizer, if needed and used. Money for these purposes must be spent as designated and the district agent of the Finance Corporation must be shown receipts, if he so requests.

The Milam County board is composed of Conn R. Isaacs of Rockdale; J. C. Freeman of Maysfield and R. P. Lehman of Buckholts, working in conjunction with George Banzhaf county agent.

GROVER C. WALTERS IS BURIED IN CAMERON

BUSINESS MAN HERE AND FORMER LUMBERMAN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

After a lingering illness of several weeks, Grover Cleveland Walters died Tuesday afternoon, March 8 at 2:35 o'clock at the hospital where he had been taken several weeks ago for medical aid, but nothing could be done to relieve him.

Mr. Walters was born May 25, 1885 at Trickham, Coleman county, Texas. He was married to Mrs. Vada Tucker Little, April 1, 1925. To this union was born one child, Hubert, age 4. At that time Mr. Walters was manager of the Milam County Lumber Company, a position that he held for a number of years.

He was a man of bright, cheerful, social nature, and made many friends in Cameron and Milam county who will be grieved to hear of his passing.

Early in youth he united with the Baptist church and remained in that church until 1929 when he took fellowship with the First Christian church in Cameron and had taken much interest in all its activities.

Rev. Joel B. Hardigree, pastor of the Christian church conducted the funeral services, taking as his text, "To him that overcometh, to him will I give to eat of the tree of life; which is in the paradise of God." Rev. 2:7. Services were conducted at the home. Interment was made in Oak Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Walters is survived by his widow and son. Children of a former marriage are G. C. Walters, Jr., age 16; Ernest Walters, age 13 years; and two step children, Miss Billie Moore age 16 and Taylor Moore, age 13 years.

Pallbearers were members of the Odd Fellows Lodge and were Judge Jeff T. Kemp, J. L. Slaughter, J. L. Adams, Roy Law, Joe Bass and C. C. Smith.

Beautiful floral offerings covered the newly made grave. Coleman and Eplen had charge of the funeral.

Roy Baskin Appointed District Judge Here

Roy Baskin, attorney and former county attorney of the county, was appointed District Judge here Monday when the March term was to be held.

Judge Watson is ill in a Dallas hospital and could not be present for the term, it was said. The Bar for the county named Judge Baskin to preside in court during the absence of Judge Watson.

The Grand Jury has not been convened for the March term.

Mrs. Jack Cammer is a patient in the Cameron hospital this week.

Examining Trial Held For Weaver Vaughn

Examining trial was being held beginning at ten o'clock Thursday morning for Weaver Vaughn before Justice Ralston in the county court room.

Vaughn is charged with murder in connection with the shooting to death of Robert Kirk here on Monday morning at 9:45.

At 2:30 this afternoon following the examining trial Vaughn was admitted to bail in the sum of $5000 by Justice Ralston.

The trial had consumed a major part of the day. Vaughn did not testify but a number of witnesses did take the stand and it was developed that Vaughn's motive was, as had been claimed, protection of his family.

Miss Elizabeth Mangum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Mangum, has been ill with flu the past week. She is reported much improved now.

ROBERT KIRK WITH FOUR BODY WOUNDS IS SLAIN

WEAVER VAUGHN ARRESTED BY GENE SMITH AFTER BOB KIRK IS SLAIN

Robert Kirk, 29, was shot to death at 9:45 Monday morning, March 7, 1932 as he walked from the Green Brothers store in company with his brother Wiley Kirk.

Weaver Vaughn after the shooting left the scene and went rapidly in the direction of the Citizens National Bank, reloading a 38 calibre Colt revolver from which he had fired five shots. Vaughn turned west and went in the direction of the Gulf Station across the street from the Milam County Lumber Company.

After Bob Kirk had fallen lifeless to the pavement, his brother, Wiley Kirk went to the body and tearing away the shirt got a 38 automatic pistol from his dead brother and followed Vaughn, running to the bank corner and turning west in the direction Vaughn had taken. No shots were fired as both men were plunging thru the crowd. When Vaughn reached a light pole in the middle of the block he stopped and Kirk approaching a light pole at the corner across from the Whatley Grocery stopped and taking aim with the gun of his slain brother opened fire on Vaughn. One bullet entered the center of the pole and another grazed the side and passed on. He was shooting west. In all four shots are said to have been fired. Vaughn did not return the fire, saying later that he did not want to harm Wiley Kirk as he had nothing against him. If Vaughn had opened fire the bullets would have gone

CLUB HEARS PROGRAM LAUDING MODERN WOMAN IN BUSINESS

The "Possibilities for Public Service by Business Women" was the subject Giles L. Avriett used in an address to the Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening, March 8 at their meeting. Mr. Avriett dwelt on the capability of woman for right, and said that a woman should have high ideals and not be an idealist; and stressed the point that woman were singularly adopted to stand for right, which she usually did; and spoke of the opportunities that are now open for business women.

There were present a number of specially invited guests, among them representatives of other service clubs in the city.

Mrs. A. C. Strickland represented the Cameron History Club for her mother, Mrs. Wm. Henderson, who is president and pledged her support to

'Cut it Out and Drop Your Guns,' Said Gene Smith and Gun Fight On Street Monday Was Ended

Gene Smith, bold, colorful and courageous peace officer, City Marshal of Cameron and candidate for Sheriff of Milam County, figured again Tuesday in a Cameron gun battle, not of his choosing or affair, but as a composer of the peace.

Gene has been a victim of much of that sort of thing. It nearly always happens that Gene Smith is the man to stop it. And he did stop it.

Here's what he said, just seven words: "Cut it out and drop your guns." They did and the Vaughn-Kirk gun fight in which one man was killed, was ended and both surviving men placed in jail.

About all the trouble Gene has ever had has been for someone else or for the law which he has served many times. Whether just a plain citizen or an officer he's always ready and he always comes to the place where something has to be done and he always does it.

Gene was in a barber shop. It didn't make no difference about the lather on his face. He knew it was gun fire and so he ran to the fight. He didn't fool around any or waste no time. Somebody was shooting at somebody else and it ought to be stopped.

Gene's heard a lot of shooting and has been shot at a lot, but he never has hurt nobody unless he had to. He's always been right in there playing with his friends and he's never been called on he didn't come.

Fresh in the minds of Cameron people are two other occasions when Gene Smith was called. Some of his friends think he has had enough of that kind of thing for any two or three men, but Gene don't never complain none. He don't seem to mind but of course he don't like trouble. His heart is big and tender but he can let the hammer down on a 45 mighty good too, and he's always there when needed. Books have been written about men with less courage and exploit. Some day somebody will write his story and it will be a cracking good one all filled up with spirit and action.

HOMES BEAUTIFUL

By MOLLIE A. MOORE

The Business and Professional Women's Clubs of these United States are sponsoring and trying to instill patriotism under the name of civic pride and during this Bicentennial of George Washington's birth, these clubs urge you in the name of George Washington to beautify your homes and driveways, and our roads and highways by planting shrubs, flowers and trees and dedicating them to the memory of George and Martha Washington. These clubs well know the hearts of humanity hunger for the beautiful on this mundane sphere and expects to associate with and enjoy the beautiful some "Sweet Day," in the Glory World far above the blue canopy of earth, when the Spirit has wafted on Angel wings Home, Sweet Home. Methinks an ideal home, be it a lowly one or an expensive mansion should be a miniature heaven, and to make it such, we must strive to live the Golden Rule in the home and with the neighbors and to make the interior comfortable, homey-like and pretty with or without expensive materials; and the exterior beautiful in its setting of plant life; for it is there we should spend much time on sunny days to enjoy the beauty of the ever changing clouds as the sun sends his sparkling rays through the misty veil which wraps mother earth in a winding shroud and changes her blue into various shades of crimsons and pinks or gold and amber hues and wakes the birds to thank their Creator for the new day with their songs of melody; and to drink in and enjoy the life giving violet rays of the King of Day as he showers his dazzling rays through our atmosphere to destroy all kinds of obnoxious germs and give humanity a new lease on life and paints our blossoms and some shrubs with rainbow tints, as he reluctantly bids our day good-bye with a farewell kiss, which flushes her clouds with pink, lavender and gold until twilight dawns and a twinkling star here and there heralds the Queen of Night with myriads of stars in her train.

Home makers can give a peaceful, restful feeling to their home surroundings or the reverse, by the plants they choose and by the arrangement of the plants they use. It is wise to select plants best fitted for your soil and keep in mind your water problem, particularly during their first summer. Some plants thrive with little moisture, for instance dusty miller, goldenrod, periwinkle, phlox, petunias, verbenas, narcissi, jonquils and all species of cactus and early blooming shrubs. Select a color scheme that will harmonize with their surroundings, remembering that greens, whites, creams, pinks and lavenders look well with all colors of painted buildings, while deep orange and bright reds may be ever so beautiful but they clash with other colors and rack one's nerves when constantly with them. Expense is an item but flowers are one of the blessings our Heavenly Father made especially for mankind and He has scattered so many beautiful ones over mother earth—free to all, who will take them, therefore search our woods and prairies and you will find many beautiful shrubs and annuals which are well worth transplanting. In planting shrubs, remember they want room for growth.

May the time speedily come, when each of you, dear readers, will have a beautiful home, partly covered with clinging vines—queen's wreath, clematis, cypress, Jackbeans and climbing roses, etc., with a wide flower bed growing roses and other blooming shrubs—bridal wreath, perennial phlox, stock, yard ferns and lillies of various kinds and bordered in violets and running all around your home, broken only by carefully laid walks which are bordered with wide beds holding phlox, snap dragons, spider lillies and verbenas in shades of your color scheme. An evergreen or two or a few flowering shrubs in your grassy lawns from your flower beds to the street well enhance their beauty. Your driveway will be beautiful bordered with flowers and fruit trees with their masses of fragrant lovely blossoms attracting the busy bees, the butterflies and humming birds and in later months their beautifully tinted fruits will be delicious enough to please the fairies. Shrubs bearing flowers and berries, like bridal wreath, altheas, crepe myrtle, cape jasmines, dogwood, red bud, holly, abelias, etc., planted five feet or more apart in two rows, with five feet or more space between the rows and planted so the space in one row is in front of a shrub in the second row will make a beautiful division between your front and back yards and give your shrubs space to grow without crowding and add a restful beauty to your home. Outhouses hidden by evergreens or flowering shrubs and fruits and with nut trees bearing their foliage and fruit above them add beauty to the whole and give fruits fit for the gods, and if by chance, oaks or strong forest trees stand near, plant English ivy, wisteria or grape vines to cling on them and you will have a background beautiful enough to attract all passers by. Unsightly fences covered in vines, grapes, dewberry, sarsaparilla, ivy or climbing roses change them into beauty very pleasing to the eye.

If you desire economy in labor and expense and on your water supply, sow your lawns with blue bonnets or verbenas and see what beauty nature will give with dewdrops and rain. Remember, to be an ideal home, every member of its household must have a part in making it beautiful. Give every child, even the tiny tot, some spot to plant. Remember, helter, skelter planting and cultivating will instill haphazard traits of character in the individual and a regular systematic method will produce desirable traits in the child and exercise in mother earth's ozone and the violet rays of King Sol will give strength to the body and add roses to the complexion. Permission to use the flowerers vegetables or fruits grown on the child's plot of ground will instill interest and pleasure in the tasks connected with it, and love for home, which is the highest type of patriotism. By suggestions and example in the uses of the products. You instill the Golden Rule and develop a worthwhile character for our nation and for God's Kingdom.

SALEM

By J. M. MOORMAN

It seems that the country schools do not have a chance to win from the larger schools (Rockdale and Cameron) in basketball. The country school usually has about six men to pick from on their boys team and seven or eight for a girl's team, so the chances are two to one against country schools.

If class A schools are placed in a separate group in track, they should be in basketball. The coaches of the country schools should see to this before next year and make arrangements for such. This is the only fair way for the country schools to decide a winner.

I am not casting any "stones" at the class A schools, but I am trying to help the boys and girls get in their class in the country schools. By class I mean numbers.

CLUB SPIRIT

By LOTTIE S. BIGBEE
President Cameron Business and Professional Women's Club

Club Spirit is that ephemeral, yet virulent something without which no Club can really be successful. It is that urge which causes officers and committees and other interested members who are not serving on committees to give freely of their time and thought to further the best interest of the Club. The combination of officers and committees, planning for the Club and giving their time unselfishly on the one hand, and unselfish interested members backing up in a properly appreciative way the work of their officers by interest and attendance make a perfect Club picture. It is just this Club Spirit which makes and will continue to make the Cameron Business and Professional Women's Club outstandingly successful. We are all proud of our club and justly so.

JONES PRAIRIE

By MRS. R. K. FONTAINE

Helen Harrell spent last week in Waco visiting relatives.

The chili supper at Jones Prairie Friday night was well attended. Everyone present enjoyed the evening although the weather outside is very disagreeable.

C. C. Black and family of Cameron visited in the community Sunday.

Lee Marek spent the week end in San Antonio.

Mrs. W. J. Fontaine is spending this week in Belton with her daughter Mrs. Roy Little.

Mrs. Lee Marek was called to San Antonio Thursday on account of illness of her daughter, Mrs. Carl Meger.

Mrs. Henry Black is confined to her bed at this time; she has an attending nurse, Miss Jinks.

Connie Mae Hickman and Ollie Mae Smitherman spent the week end at Caldwell visiting Jewelle Smitherman.

Mrs. Carrie McLerran spent several days last week with her sister, Mrs. John Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Love of Bryan spent Sunday at the P. H. Love home.

Jones-Glenn

Miss Mary E. Jones and Robert Glenn were united in marriage Saturday at 12:00 noon by Rev. Spradley at the home of Mrs. W. T. Johnson.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Dick Jones and is very popular here. Robert, being the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Glenn, has been a very successful farmer since he has been out of school.

An impressive ring ceremony was employed and the bride wore a beautiful crepe dress of new spring green with hat to harmonize. Wearing a beautiful corsage presented her by the groom's mother, who was unable to attend the wedding.

The bride's brother, Bailey Jones and wife and son and Miss Louise Jamison were the only guests present.

Many friends will be glad to learn that Royal P. Jeter, who has been ill for some time at the Cameron hospital, is improving rapidly and has been taken to his home.

PAINS QUIT COMING

"When I was a girl, I suffered periodically with terrible pains in my back and sides. Often I would bend almost double with the intense pain. This would last for hours and I could get no relief.

"I tried almost everything that was recommended to me, but found nothing that would help until I began taking Cardui. My mother thought it would be good for me, so she got a bottle of Cardui and started me taking it. I soon improved. The bad spells quit coming. I was soon in normal health."

HISTORY OF CAMERON BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB

By DELPHYA SCOTT

The Business and Professional Women's Club in Cameron dates its beginning to 1925 when it was a recreational club with Miss Susan Pope as its Chairman. After nearly a year the club decided to organize more fully and elected as their first president Miss Anne Stallworth who served one year. At this time the club was called a Business and Professional Women's Club.

Miss Rose Rischar was the second president and served most faithfully for nearly two years. During her first year's administration the club voted to Federate, changing the time of election of officers to conform to the Federated laws. This was during prosperous times and a large number of members federated. Mrs. Meta McCown was elected third president of the club and served most splendidly.

Mrs. Gladys Watson followed Mrs. McCown and made one of the best presidents until ill health caused her absence at many times. Miss Rose Rischar was again elected to the presidency and served the club efficiently.

As times grew more strenuous, the club grew less in number. Last year Mr. L. Bigbee was elected president and is serving the club in an efficient manner.

For several years the club met in different homes, the Country Club or in the city park.

The Commercial Club, Lions Club and American Legion have recognized the club and its activities and have co-operated in a number of events in Cameron. Some of the best talent and finest speakers have appeared on the programs from time to time.

A number of the members have been recognized by the State Club. Mrs. Nina Wilkerson was appointed State Legislative Chairman the first year of our Federation. Miss Ann Stallworth was elected treasurer in 1928 for the Business and Professional Women's Club of Texas, and was unanimously elected to second term and served with distinction. The Club proudly claims as a member one who bears the distinction of being elected as the most outstanding citizen in Cameron in the person of Miss Mollie Moore who was unanimously elected, in a contest by the American Legionnaires in 1929, and received a beautifully framed certificate. Another honor came to the club in 1928 when Miss Anne Stallworth was appointed Gift Chairman for the State of Texas, the object of which was to help formulate a definite financial plan to be worked out to purchase and establish a National Headquarters at Washington, D. C., for the Federated Business and Professional Women's Clubs. At this time the state club pledged to give $350, to be collected from the different local clubs over the state.

In 1928 Delphya Scott was appointed State Assistant Publicity Chairman to serve with the State Publicity Chairman, Kate McKay of Dallas, and had as her duty to receive all reports from this district, composing the clubs of Corsicana, Waco, Belton, Temple, Beaumont and Cameron. She has been the local publicity chairman since the organization of the Cameron club with the exception of a few months when out of town, when Miss Bess DuBois was the able publicity chairman.

The Club has been represented at all the state meetings and at one National meeting, sending Miss Rose

Rischar to the meeting at New Orleans.

Splendid Year Books are made each year and all meetings are being carried out as directed by the State program chairman.

Several young people have received aid in sending them to commercial schools during the past five years. The club has sponsored good gardens, and yard beautification, paying cash prizes to those judged successful winners. Under the direction of the City Park chairman, Mrs. L. Bigbee, the City Park has been beautified, setting out a number of fine pecan trees, shrubbery and flowers.

Officers of the Club are, President, Mrs. L. Bigbee; First Vice President, Lucille Butts; Second Vice President, Katherine Bailey; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Gladys Watson; Corresponding Secretary, Lillian Atkinson; Treasurer, Anne Stallworth; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Katherine K. Robbins.

Cash Crops Better Products Theme of Taylor Meeting

Importance of cash crops on the farm and the improvement of products marketed will be brought to the attention of several hundred farmers around Taylor on March 16, when the first annual Swift Day is held at the high school auditorium.

Producers of butterfat, poultry and eggs will be told how their products are marketed and how they can procure better returns for what they have to sell, by experts from the A. & M. College of Texas, county agents, and others. The program is sponsored by the local produce plant of Swift & Company.

The meeting, which will be an all day affair, will be called to order at 9:30 by F. T. Smith. G. V. Jeck will discuss poultry ills that cause heavy losses to farm flocks. F. M. Simpson of Chicago will talk on how the butter, eggs and poultry of Texas are marketed. D. W. Brown, county agent will offer some helpful hints and Prof. R. W. Persons, A. & M. College of Texas will discuss "Relief from Low Prices." The motion pictures include "A Tale of Two Bulls," "Blood Will Tell," and "Producing Quality Chicks."

Luncheon will be served to those in attendance.

depositors wanted the County to retain its bonds of $70,000.00 and to pay rate with the depositors in the shortage, $38,500.00. He explained that it had been claimed that the law gives the county a preference over the depositors, but that is untrue. That there is no such law; and that it was not right, that it was wrong for the County to take all of the $38,500.00, that if they did, it was taking the money of the depositors.

It was further explained by Mr. Freeman that the $38,500.00 belonging to the county, and unsecured by bonds, should not be given preference over the average common depositor. Mr. Freeman also stated that at the first meeting no complaint or criticism of the Banking Commissioner and his deputies in charge of the bank was made; that there had been some rumors that the depositors refused to consider until they learned the facts; but that since that meeting, he had called on deputies in charge of the bank and stated that the committee appointed by the depositors wanted to look over the books of the Bank to ascertain if these reports were true; and that the deputy refused to permit such examination, stating that he did not have authority, and that we would be required to get this authority from the Banking Commissioner at Austin.

Dr. Denson Reports

Dr. J. L. Denson, chairman of the Depositors Committee, had been conferring with the Commissioners Court in another room, and appeared and said that the Commissioners had told him that the Banking Commissioner had made a rule to the effect that the County should get the entire $108,500. Mr. Freeman corrected this and stated that it was not a ruling but an arrangement or agreement between the Commissioners Court and the Banking Commissioner, which was entered of record in the minutes of the Commissioners Court of Milam County. This agreement will be found in another column of this Herald.

Dr. Denson further stated that at the last meeting Mr. Morrison, attorney for the County, had said that the school fund had to be paid dollar for dollar. That the other two banks were liable for its payment and if necessary, he would see that the bank paid it. Mr. Morrison was sick and unable to attend the meeting.

E. A. Camp Speaks

E. A. Camp, attorney for the banking commissioner, was present and on invitation addressed the meeting and stated that the Banking Commissioner had nothing to do with the arrangements, but that he would leave the controversy between the depositors and the Commissioners Court. He further stated that as an attorney for the Banking Commissioner was doing all he could to collect the debts owing to the bank so that the depositors could be paid as far as possible, and that the auditors found some discrepancy, which would enable the Commissioner to recover from the banking company the sum of $15,000.00.

Dr. Denson addressed the meeting again and stated that the reason the committee wanted to examine the books of the bank was that it was reported that large sums of money had been withdrawn from the bank about the time it closed.

A. J. Gonnella of Hanover, a depositor, asked whether the school fund involved was a part of the $108,500.

E. P. Matosha Speaks

Attorney E. P. Matosha made a strong and earnest appeal, urging that the depositors be given an opportunity to share equally with the county in the dividends to be paid by the bank in its liquidation. He pointed out further that it would be unfair for the county to receive every cent of its unprotected claim, whereas the average depositor would lose his.

No criticism was made of the Commissioners Court for putting the money in the bank without security. Mr. Freeman urged strongly that when the agreement was made between the Banking Commissioner and the Commissioners Court that the depositors should have been given an opportunity to be present and heard; that it is provided in the Constitution, both of the Nation and State, that no man should be deprived of his life, liberty or property without due process of law and that this involved the service of notice and citation.

Mr. Morrison, retained by the Commissioners Court, following the failure of the Cameron State Bank, was unable to be present and therefore no definite understanding could be reached with the Commissioners Court, and the meeting adjourned subject to call of the Depositors Committee.

daughter, Mrs. Paul, for the past year or more, had been living with his daughter in San Antonio and for over a year had been in declining health; was bed ridden for more than three months prior to his passing.

The remains were brought to Rockdale over the I. & G. N. railroad and were taken to the Old Fellows cemetery where the last sad rites were given him.

While living in Cameron Mr. Bauknight was a steward of the Methodist church, gave of his means and time freely, and has many friends who regret his passing. A number of them were present at the funeral services in Rockdale and pall bearers were from Cameron and were Messrs. C. W. Lawrence, Robert McLane, Judge Jeff T. Kemp, J. M. Ralston, M. G. Cox and Arthur Baskin. Those to attend were Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Cox, Judge Jeff T. Kemp, Mrs. Jessie Winn, Mrs. Pearl Clement, Miss Delphya Scott, Miss Mollie Moore, G. B. Tracy, Will Cox and Arthur Baskin. A large crowd of friends in Rockdale attended.

A colored friend who had lived with the Bauknight family for over fifteen years while in Cameron, followed his friend to the last resting place, Cozier Walker, faithful to the last.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. V. T. Paul and son V. T. Paul Jr., of San Antonio; two brothers, one in Florida and one in Georgia and several nephews and nieces.

unanimous vote, accepted the same, and does here now agree with said Banking Commissioner that, in the final settlement of the account of this Court with said Cameron State Bank, that it will allow him full credit for the face value of said bonds in the sum of $70,000.00 and accrued interest out of consideration of the fact that the said Commissioner now withholds all of his claim against said $70,000.00 in bonds, and permits this Court to sell and dispose of the same without hindrance or claim from him.

It is therefore, ordered that this Court accept said proposition as before stated, and said Commissioner be notified that this Court takes the said $70,000.00 in bonds under the proposition submitted by him, and it is so ordered.

JEFF T. KEMP, County Judge

The foregoing order is herewith approved on behalf of the Commissioner of Banking.

A. A. SPACK, Special Agent in charge of Cameron State Bank in Liquidation.

in the direction of people in the block to the east of the scene of the shooting.

Bob Kirk Has Five Wounds

According to witnesses of the shooting at the Green Brothers store where Bob Kirk was slain, Weaver Vaughn was standing at the curb near a light pole when Kirk stepped from the Green Brothers store and opened fire, the bullet entering a plate glass show window. Vaughn was said to have stood there for a few seconds with pistol waiting for Kirk. The first shot went wild. Kirk then stepped toward the curb just east of the stairway that leads to the Telephone Exchange and at this time Vaughn fired again. This bullet entered his left shoulder and entered the region of the heart. Kirk fell on his back into the street, his feet some two feet from the curb. Vaughn is said to have walked to where Kirk lay and fired three more shots, two bullets taking effect in his stomach, one center and the other to the right and the other entering the heart about one inch to the right of the left nipple. There was also a slight wound in the right hand and a glove picked up at the scene of the killing showed a bullet hole in the top. It was a glove for the right hand. In all five shots were fired.

Gene Smith Arrives

The shots were fired, two in fairly rapid succession with an interval and then three more. City Marshal Gene Smith was in the Asphorium Barber Shop being shaved but knew the sounds were pistol shots. He ran from the shop with lather on his face, crossed the intersection of the street at the Palace of Sweets and passed by and looked at Kirk. People down the street motioned to him that a gun fight was going on on the south side of the block. He drew his pistol and made for the storm center. Arriving Smith saw the position of the men and witnessed the firing by Kirk.

He lost no time as usual in getting into action. He said: "Cut it out and drop your guns," and no more shots were fired and the battle was ended. Kirk replied that he would drop his gun if Vaughn did and so Smith disarmed them both taking the automatic from Kirk and the 38 Colt double action from Vaughn. The Marshal took both to jail, Vaughn going in front and Kirk asked to walk behind. Kirk was admitted to bail on a bond of $500 while Vaughn charged with murder was held for examining trial which was held beginning at 10 a. m. Thursday.

Wiley Kirk Follows Vaughn

After his brother, Bob had been shot down, Wiley Kirk took the automatic from his shirt and ran after Vaughn, but it was said did not find opportunity to fire on account of the large number of people on the street. In a few minutes confusion was everywhere with people running for shelter as the guns cracked.

Bob Kirk was picked up from the pavement and placed in a Coleman-Eliot ambulance but died before reaching the hospital. According to witnesses it was said that Kirk tried to speak but was too sorely wounded to be understood. His right hand was moved by him slowly in his head and fell back again as the first ones arrived. No aid could be given.

It was said that trouble had been brewing for some time between the men because of attentions paid by Kirk to Vaughn's wife. Both men are fathers of families. Kirk being survived by a widow and five children and Vaughn being married with three children.

Funeral services for Kirk were held at 5 p. m., Thursday, March 10, 1932 at Liberty cemetery with Rev. C. C. Acroy, pastor of the First Presbyterian church in charge of the services. Kirk was born September 18, 1892 in the Hanover community. He had lived in the Belinda community near Mayfield for about nine years. He was married to Miss Anna Malone in July of 1919. Kirk is one of twelve children and is survived by his father, six brothers and five sisters.

the B. & P. W. Club in their service work.

Mrs. Sam Burns Jr., president of the local Parent Teachers Association, gave an impromptu speech on the work of the P. T. A., as she had found it in Cameron and heartily expressed her willingness to cooperate with the B. & P. W. Club in their civic activities.

George Gott, of the Lions Club cheerfully pledged their club to cooperate in all worthwhile civic interests of the B. & P. W. Club.

A feature of the evening's entertainment was the Raptist male quartette who rendered songs in a delightful manner. The quartette is composed of Ray Burke, M. G. Cox, A. C. Strickland and John Hays.

Guests present were Mrs. Sam Burns, Mrs. A. C. Strickland, Mrs. F. Fahrendorf, Mrs. Wilma Ramsauer, Mrs. W. E. Denson, Mrs. E. B. Lovick, Mrs. W. E. Gaither, Miss Dell Hunt Miss Georgia Walker, State Supervisor of the Education Department at Austin; Giles Avriett, George Gott and those composing the quartette.

Miss Lillian Atkinson was chairman of the program; Miss Rose Ruchar was hostess, and served a delightful salad plate with hot tea.

The ability and responsibility as a citizen was the keynote of all addresses. What business women can do to better the communities in which they live is being stressed this week in more than 1200 clubs in as many cities, stretching from coast to coast, and is inaugurated into his week's program and will be followed in some communities by a "Better Government" day. The observance is under the auspices of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's club, the largest national organization of business women in the world with which the local B. & P. W. Club is affiliated. National Business and Women's week first inaugurated in 1925 proved popular and last year the observance had the approval of President Hoover, the endorsement of 21 governors and of more than 200 mayors. This year there will be many more Mayors to endorse it; and many of the leading business men of Cameron have endorsed it by decorating their show windows in their places of business, in a suitable manner.

It is estimated that women control 40 per cent of the country's wealth. In 1931 there were 47,185 women employees in banking institutions. In many large corporations the women are large stockholders; and are beneficiaries of 80 per cent of the insurance policies in force in the United States.

Judge, he is held in high esteem by them. His life has been one of usefulness and he has been found busy in every endeavor for better government and for the advancement of the most interests of his native country. An eloquent speaker, versed in law and enjoying great public confidence, this campaign for District Judge will awaken a deep and wide spread interest among the people.

A Democrat, Judge Gillis, has always taken an active interest in the affairs of his party, having served as County Chairman and at times when the fortunes of the party were at stake he responded to the call of duty and became its champion on the stump not only in Milam county but in other sections of Texas. His many friends point out that he offers the ideal as a candidate for he has always been loyal to the best traditions of his party and has espoused his conviction for Democratic principles when many were hiding behind expediency. He is both courageous and honorable and against his record there is nothing, both in public and private life. He wants to serve the people of his native county as District Judge and his friends believe that he is qualified in every way to serve in that place with distinction.

He submits his candidacy based upon his record as a good Democrat, a good lawyer, a good citizen and a desire to serve the people. He asks his friends over the county to lend their vote and support and assures them that if elected to this important office he will give back in service a measure of appreciation justifying the confidence thus placed in him.

Judge Gillis plans to make an active campaign and to see and talk to the voters about his race but in the event he is unable to see each one he takes this method of announcing his candidacy and to acquaint the people of the county with the desire he holds to serve them and with grateful appreciation for past favors and an earnest request for your vote and support, he enters the campaign and invites his friends to lend their support.

NEWSPAPER EDITOR IN RACE FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE

Is Native Texan and Publisher Of Two Newspapers

L. J. SULAK

TO THE VOTERS OF TEXAS:

I herewith announce my candidacy for Congressman-at-Large. In making this announcement I submit for your consideration the principles upon which I seek your suffrage. Being a native Texan, born and reared on a farm, and with many years of newspaper experience and close contact with the people of all walks of life, I believe that I thoroughly understand the needs of the people of this state and that I can render efficient service in the National law-making body, if I am chosen as one of the three Congressmen-at-Large. If you agree with me on the main principles of my platform shall highly value your vote and support.

1. I favor liberalization of our banking laws so as to maintain a sufficient volume of currency at all times to care for the needs of the country. The Federal Reserve Board should be charged with keeping in circulation at all times not less than $50.00 per capita and to increase this amount with the need of the banks to accommodate the marketing or producing of the nation's crops, or financing of the nation's commerce and industry.

2. I favor extension of power of the Federal Land Banks with a view of aiding home ownership and to protect the borrower so long as the value of the land given as security is maintained and the soil and buildings are properly cared for. In all Federal Land Bank foreclosures I favor giving the borrower two years in which to redeem his property at the mortgage price plus interest and costs.

3. I favor immediate cash payments of the adjusted compensation to veterans of the World War with a view of restoring prosperity. The Government owes the ex-service men approximately $2,250,000,000.00 for services rendered during the recent war. This is a just obligation of the Government and should be paid in cash. The man who shouldered a gun and went overseas to fight for American freedom while others remained at home, many of whom made large fortunes while the soldier fought for a dollar a day, should not be forced to borrow any portion of his adjusted compensation and to pay interest thereon. I favor issuing treasury notes (currency) sufficient to pay every ex-service man in full. This will add approximately $18.00 per capita to the money in circulation, bringing the total up to approximately $58.00 per capita, or about what it was immediately after the war when the country was at the peak of its prosperity. By thus increasing the medium of exchange, the demand for merchandise will start the factories to working, furnishing employment to idle workers, prices of farm products will rise, and business generally will be normal again. And the Government will have discharged its just obligation to the men who won the war for Democracy.

4. I favor a higher income and inheritance tax in the higher brackets with a view of breaking up the immense fortunes and decentralization of the country's wealth which is now in the hands of the few.

5. I favor modification of the Volstead Law. I am opposed to the return of the old saloon with its many evils, but I am convinced that prohibition under the present law is not enforceable and has contributed more toward corruption in government and degeneration of the morals of the country than any one thing. I believe the law should be modified so as to enlist the support of the majority of the people and make enforcement possible.

6. I favor consolidation of the useful bureaus and commissions and the abolishment of all those which have been created to give employment to the "lame ducks." This should be done in interest of efficiency and economy.

7. I favor development of our ports and of our navigable streams with a view of aiding industry and commerce, through lower freight rates.

8. I favor legislation promoting co-operative marketing of farm products. Agriculture is the basic industry of our nation and must be rehabilitated and maintained on a high plane in accordance with the American standard of living. Those who feed and clothe the world must be protected to the extent that they may enjoy every comfort others have, and that they be made secure against the ruthless exploitation of the gamblers and market manipulators who levy a tremendous toll upon everything the farmer produces.

9. I favor voluntary arbitration of labor disputes, by representatives chosen by each side of the controversy. I am unalterably opposed to granting injunctions in controversies arising between employers and employees.

10. I favor maintaining a Navy to the full strength of the five power treaty. I am not a militarist, but in view of the unsettled world condition, and with the lessons we have learned in the recent World War by not having sufficient ships manned by trained marines, failure to maintain our Navy to protect our nationals and our commerce and to properly prosecute any war of defense into which this country may be forced, would be nothing short of a crime against our country.

11. I am against cancellation or reduction of the war debts due our country by the foreign powers. There is a growing sentiment in Europe and in this country that we should reduce the amount of these war debts, or cancel them altogether. I shall never vote for any such measure. This country asked for no spoils of war and received none. And now our former allies are asking that we not only pay for our own part in the war, but for theirs also.

12. I am against short selling of farm products on the exchanges. I favor a law making it an offense punishable by confinement in the penitentiary at hard labor to sell farm products which the seller does not actually possess at the time of sale. The products of farm and ranch are often sold down below cost of production by those who do not possess, or do they expect to possess, any of such products. Such practices are criminal when indulged in to drive the price of the producers' commodity below cost of production, which is often done by the gamblers in these gambling dens called the exchanges.

13. I am opposed to centralization of our government in Washington and of our wealth in Wall Street and favor adequate laws to decentralize both. I believe in States Rights and am opposed to any further encroachment upon these rights by the Federal government.

Upon the above principles I take my stand and seek your suffrage.

Respectfully,

L. J. SULAK.

HOW TO KILL ANY CIVIC CLUB

Don't come to the meeting.

But if you do come, come late.

If the weather doesn't suit you, do not think of coming.

If you do attend a meeting, find fault with the work of the officers and other members.

Never accept an office—it is easier to criticize than to do things.

Get sore if you are not appointed on a committee; but if you are, do not attend committee meetings.

If asked by the chairman to give your opinion regarding some important matter, tell him you have nothing to say. After the meeting tell everyone how things ought to be done.

Do nothing more than is absolutely necessary; but when other members roll up their sleeves and willingly, unselfishly use their ability to help matters along, howl that the association is run by a clique.

Hold back your dues as long as possible, or don't pay at all.

Don't bother about getting new members. That's the secretary's job.

When a banquet is given, tell everybody money is being wasted on blow-outs which make a big noise and accomplish nothing.

When no banquets are given say

the association is dead and needs a can tied to it.

Don't ask for a banquet ticket until all are sold.

Then swear you've been cheated out of yours.

If you do get a ticket, don't pay for it.

If asked to sit at the speaker's table, modestly refuse.

If you are not asked, resign from the association.

If you don't receive a bill for your dues, don't pay.

If you receive a bill after you've paid, resign from the association.

Don't tell the association how it can help you; but if it doesn't help you, resign.

If you receive service without joining, don't think of joining.

If the association doesn't correct abuses in your neighborhood business, howl that nothing is done.

If it calls attention to abuses in your own, resign from the association.

Keep your eyes open for something wrong and when you find it, resign.

At every opportunity threaten to resign and then get your friends to resign.

When you attend a meeting, vote

to do something and then go home and do the opposite.

Agree to everything said at the meeting and disagree with it outside.

When asked for information, don't give it.

Curse the association for the incompleteness of its information.

Get all the association gives you but don't give it anything.

Talk co-operation for the other fellow with you; but never co-operate with him.

When everything else fails, curse the secretary.

Signed,

Johnny's brother,
Billious Bill the 2nd.

Reynolds Tobacco Co.
Adopts Cotton Cloth
For Stationery

Winston-Salem, N. C., March 7—In line with the South's efforts to increase the use of cotton in all forms, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company of Winston-Salem, N. C., has announced that its stationery is now being made of cotton cloth.

The Reynolds Company, manufacturers of Camel Cigarettes, Prince Albert smoking tobacco and other tobacco products, does a world-wide business and is one of the largest, if not the largest business firm in the country to go cotton.

The cotton cloth stationery is used exactly like paper, and readily takes ink, typewriting and printing. Cotton stationery used by the Reynolds Company is purchased in wholesale lots and advertises the United States' cotton crop to business associates in all parts of the world.

Most Novel Valentine of the Year Is Made Entirely of Candy

Here, snapped at Miami Beach, Fla., is the year's most novel Valentine—a miniature Napoleon coach model made entirely of candy! It was constructed by Hans Bendl, famous pastry chef of Detroit, for presentation to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fisher, who acted as host and hostess last summer to the state winners in the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild coach-building competition. The coach is a replica of the model which thousands of boys are building in the second annual Guild competition, now under way, and its construction required more than a month. Its attractive custodian in this picture is Miss Evelyn Wink of Detroit, a member of the Florida winter colony.

THE BUSINESS WOMEN AND EDUCATION

By MRS. KATHRYN K. ROBBINS

The public has long since realized that to succeed in any field of endeavor, a certain amount of training is necessary. The person blessed with native ability certainly has the advantage over the person who depends upon training alone, but native ability plus training make a most competent workman in any field of endeavor. In early days there was little chance for a person, especially a woman, to make a choice of occupations for there were not very many kinds of work. Boys as a rule followed the trades of their fathers and girls became housewives without any preparation just as their mothers did. Today all is changed. The industrial era has brought a new day. The number of occupations has increased to more than 20,000 and practically every woman has an opportunity to choose her occupation just as a young man does.

Training for the business world involves many more aspects than the mere training of the mind. Personality is not a mysterious something which the fairies endowed us with when we came into this world. It is a thing of education on the part of the individual herself and it is her duty to make sure that the people with whom she does business like her in order that her firm may prosper. This one attribute on the part of employees make up what is known in the business world as good will. The good will of a business is the favor in which it is held by those whom it serves. It is built up by the persons who are connected with that business. A careless clerk, a rude office assistant, a dishonest errand girl, any one of forty persons who deal with the public may contribute his or her small part toward breaking down the good opinion which a customer holds of that firm. Good will can be built up by persons, and only by persons.

Another essential element in the education of the successful business woman is good manners which must be practiced on all occasions whether the business woman feels inclined to be pleasant or not. Her personal appearance, as regards neatness and charm; her bearing, whether slouchy or erect, her manners and her voice, whether pleasing or rude are all a definite part of the business woman's education that spell success or failure in her career. To be able to approach people easily, impress them favorably, and talk with them pleasantly is a resource of the highest importance to any woman who would live a happy, useful life in the business world. Yet such ability comes only with intention, practice and education. Emerson said "Very few people discover themselves during their lives." Certainly it is the duty of the successful business woman to discover herself. She must know her strength and her weakness and she must make the most of her discovery. More important than aptitude for work and a pleasing personality is character; what one is, not what one appears to be. To be successful in business, one must gain the confidence of those with whom one desires to transact business. To gain confidence, one must be honest, both with one's self and with others. Self-control is a very important factor in the development of character. Character is essential and incalculably valuable; it cannot be bought for any amount of money.

From a few of the points noted above, it will be observed that the education of the successful business woman involves a great deal more than training for accuracy in computations or a knowledge of correct form and spelling in letter writing or the handling of advertising matter. A sympathetic knowledge of the needs of others and of supplying those needs even before they are requested; a keen insight of human nature and the possession of sufficient initiative and good judgment to know when to speak and act or when to keep silent; all of these things constitute a very definite part of the business woman's education and thousands of women by the study of these rules and daily application of the principles involved in such an education have made themselves better business women for a better business world.

At a recent meeting of the State ex-students held at the Buccaneer Hotel in Galveston, celebrating their annual Independence Day banquet, Joyce Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Cox, was toastmaster for the occasion. At this time Dr. Bethel was elected president of the association and Mr. Cox vice-president.

INSURANCE AS INVESTMENT FOR WOMEN

By LEILA M. WOOLLEY

A recent survey made by an investment and banking concern of two of our largest American cities showed that about forty per cent of the individual wealth of the country is owned and controlled by women. It is estimated that women are beneficiaries of about eighty per cent of the life insurance in force in the United States today. Women pay taxes on more than $3,000,000,000 of individual income annually. They are the actual majority of the stockholders in some of the largest corporations, and constitute between thirty and forty per cent of the bond and investment house customers. They receive about seventy per cent of all the estates left by man and something near sixty-five per cent of the estates left by women.

In New York a study of about 2000 aged persons receiving help from private charities showed that a majority of the women in addition to having been wives of moderately successful husbands, had also assisted in the family program by working, some as models, teachers, nurses, seamstresses and some in factories and other kinds of work.

Then I wonder if any of us, our families or friends will one of these days be one of the one and a quarter million women past 65 years of age and dependent. Have we as business women taken the necessary precaution to safeguard the future of those near and dear to us, as well as ourselves. Are we including in our program monthly and weekly savings, even though it may be small, wisely and properly invested will make us comfortable when old age has come and we have no earning power.

It is said that more money has been saved through insurance than through banks. One of the Western coast life insurance company officials conducted an investigation of several hundred thousand savings accounts, and found that less than one per cent of the persons who started them maintained a definite schedule of depositing a certain sum at regular intervals, the majority abandoned their original program, entirely or withdrew their savings. A small number were found to have left their accounts stationary throughout a period of years.

In comparing this with those who invested in insurance policies the percentage who maintained a definite program was found to be greatly in favor of the insurance buyers.

About ninety per cent of the estates now left come from life insurance. It is recognized by the best business people of the country as being one of the safest and surest investments one can make, it insures protection, it takes away anxiety and worry about the future, and the best and surest means of building up an estate with which to take care of old age.

Life insurance companies are growing more liberal in granting insurance to women, the amount of insurance that a woman may obtain is being steadily increased. The income policies now offered are especially attractive to women. Endowment, ten, fifteen and 20 year pay life and ordinary life all offer good investments for both men and women.

WOMEN OF PROMINENCE IN CLUB

By DELPHYA SCOTT

The growth of the Business and Professional Women's Club has been more rapid than any other women's club in America; and is now prospering in a number of foreign countries.

Texas has 65 Federated Clubs totaling a membership of more than 2500 members. The State Chairman gives a most encouraging report. Mary O. Lilyerstrom of Beaumont is the State President; Julia O'Brien of Brownsville is first vice president; Mrs. T. L. Gordon, Amarillo, second vice president; Flo Folmer, Tyler, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Olga Eldridge, Amarillo, treasurer. All of these women are outstanding business women of Texas, who have made a success of their chosen professions.

Many clubs throughout the state and United States are trying to balance up with committees in respect to size, vocation, as well as civic and social interests. These reports indicate progress in enrolling outstanding women as members of our Federation.

We have in our ranks and on our Board, lawyers, doctors, surgeons, teachers, financiers and women high in social and civic relations. The first lady of our land, Mrs. Hoover, wears our pin, as well as many leading women of America. We have in our membership a lady who received the highest honor conferred upon a woman by the President of the United States, having been appointed chairman of the Women's Division of the President's Emergency Committee for Employment; we count among our members the first woman supreme court judge in the world; seven of the eight congressmen of the last congress; the first woman governor of the United States, Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross of Wyoming; the first woman mayor of an American metropolis; the head of the Women's Bureau and head of the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor;

assistant director of education of the Bureau of Indian Affairs of the Department of Interior; the only woman holding a commission in the United States Army; chief nurse of the Navy Nursing Corps; Superintendent of nurses of the United States Public Health Service. Some other famous women on our membership roll are Chief of the Passport Division of the United States; Director of nursing service of the American Red Cross; President of the National Council of Women; President of the American Association of University Women; President of the National Retail Confectioners Association; National President of American Legion Auxiliary; Founder and President of the Southern Women's Educational Alliance; First Vice President of the General Federation of Women's Clubs; two past presidents of the National Education Association; former president of the National League of Women Voters; past president of Zonta and Aitrusa; past president of the American Women's Medical Association; past President of the National Vocational Guidance Association; national executive secretaries of Girl Scouts, Foreign Policy Association, National Women's Trade Union League, Foundation of Positive Health, National Congress of Parents and Teachers and secretary of Cause and Cure of War Conference; and many other women who have attained success and distinction in varied fields.

We can not all be president's or secretaries of some national organization, but we can hold up the high ideals that our club stands for, and give the best in us; help those who are less fortunate; give what aid that we can to those in need, and strive to make "Better Business Women for a Better Business World."

SHARPE

By SANDERS AND BROWN

According to statements of Rufus Reichert, general manager of the Sharp Amateur Baseball League, the baseball team will be hosts to a dance and supper given at the Decker Hall next Saturday night, March 12.

Reichert stated that a small admission will be charged which will go for equipment for the baseball team. Everyone is urged to be present and have a good time.

Will Spiegel of this community spent most of the week touring South Texas. He states that the Rio Grande Valley has no panic nor winter. "Everyone down there has plenty of money and they seem to be well pleased with weather conditions," he said. "Cotton stalks around Port Lavaca are still blooming and the fruit in the Valley is very fine." Spiegel showed some nice oranges to the reporter which he pulled off the trees himself.

Most of the farmers planted corn here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Sharp cagers, however, played stellar basketball throughout the season. The members of the girls team are: Whittington, Bice and Caffey, forwards; Ward and Wells, center and Petty and Byrd, guards. Whittington was "spark plug" for the team throughout the season.

Mrs. J. C. Hardy, who has been ill for some time seems to be better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hook of Temple spent the past week here visiting with friends and relatives.

S. F. BARCLAY

Mrs. Wm. Jeter received word of the death of her only brother, S. F. Barclay, who died at O'Donnell, Texas, Monday morning March 7. Interment was made in Reagan, Texas on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Barclay had visited his sister here a number of times and has many friends here who will regret to hear of his passing. He is survived by four children and one sister, Mrs. Jeter.

Misses Beth, Lilly Mag and Mabel Jeter and Tom Jeter attended the funeral from Cameron.

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN OBSERVE NATIONAL WEEK

Cameron Members Contribute Much To Civic and Business Life of Community

By IVA WILSON

Lottie S. Bigbee

Mrs. Lottie S. Bigbee, for the past year, president of the Club and a charter member, has been very active in club work, holding office and serving on various committees during the life of the local organization. For the past two years, her efforts have been centered on beautification of the City Park, one of the major projects of the club. Last year, she was chairman of the park committee and has continued that activity through this session as President. Mrs. Bigbee is persistent and efficient in the matters which she undertakes in behalf of the club and is making a splendid record in office this year. Second to her club activities, Mrs. Bigbee is "chief cook at the rookery," better known as the Big-bee House, popular private boarding establishment affording a pleasant home to many who have enjoyed her hospitality for the past several years.

Katherine Bailey

First Vice President of the local club is Miss Katherine Bailey, cashier for the Texas Power & Light Co. Miss Bailey, though one of the newest members, has endeared herself to the membership by her sweet manner and willingness to enter into any activity of the organization. Reared at Jones Prairie, Miss Bailey came to Cameron about a year ago from Abilene where she had completed a course in stenography at business college. While in Abilene she had also been connected with the Abilene Reporter and News. Prior to that time she had spent one year at Baylor College. Although young in years, Miss Bailey's business experience covers no small scope. "Texans, let's talk Texas," the catchy slogan of Miss Bailey's Company, is exemplified in the cashier, only she does not confine her continuous discourse to talk of the State.

Lucille Butts

Miss Lucille Butts, popular stenographer for Hon. W. G. Gillis, prominent Cameron Attorney, is second vice president of the organization. Her ready wit and humor have made her a favorite of the members. Her presence at a meeting of the social sort is a prophecy of the meeting's success. Miss Butts has had a varied business experience which took her to several cities in this state and to other states. She received business training at Nixon Clay Business College at Austin. While there, she was employed at the State Capitol for some time and was connected with other important businesses. She was born and reared at Maysfield, removing to Cameron with her family a number of years ago. Lucille always has a friendly greeting for her acquaintances and is a faithful member of the Club.

Mrs. Gladys Watson

An outstanding administration in the club was that of Mrs. Gladys Watson as President in 1929-30. Mrs. Watson is a woman of unusual ability being office supervisor and cashier for the Texas-Louisiana Power Company. She has a most pleasing personality and the happy faculty of appeasing the grievance of any customer by reminding them that "Water is the cheapest thing they can buy." Aside from her business duties and club work, Mrs. Watson is very active in church and Sunday School work and most popular with the young people in their social activities. She is a talented musician and with the recording secretaryship this year, she is also serving as director of music, contributing largely to the pleasure of any social gathering.

Lillian Atkinson

As Corresponding Secretary, Miss Lillian Atkinson, with a long record of activities for the Club, is one of the most popular and best loved members. Miss Atkinson is an active member of the firm of the Atkinson-Stallworth Insurance Agency and "Fights fire for a living." She was formerly County Clerk of Milam county, serving in that capacity for two terms. She has the distinction of being the only woman to ever hold that office in Milam county. Beginning her career as a school teacher, Miss Atkinson has engaged in various lines of commercial work, including stenography, book keeping and abstracting. Socially, speaking, Miss Atkinson is the chief coach for the gang in Contract Bridge, "ranking second only to Ely Culberson in Authority."

Anne Stallworth

Miss Annie Stallworth, first president of the local club, prior to federation, was this year elected "Watchdog" of the club treasure chest. She is well qualified for the office, having served an "apprenticeship for this local position by being for two terms, treasurer of the State organization. She was also honored by being appointed on a national committee of Business Women's Clubs. Miss Stallworth has a very interesting collection of Indian relics and fossil remains gathered in Milam county since the club has sponsored this project. Aside from club activities Miss Stallworth has been engaged in title work for the past 25 years and for the past seven years, she has been principal stockholder and manager of the Fidelity Abstract Company.

Ennis Turner

Miss Ennis Turner, a late addition to the membership, for the past eight years has held a responsible position with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, beginning as switchboard operator and receiving several promotions. She at this time is cashier of that company. Miss Turner is a graduate of Yoe high school, a young lady of pleasing personality and impresses the public with the knowledge that she is thoroughly capable of handling the duties entrusted to her. She is an enthusiastic member, always ready to enter into any of the club activities and as such has endeared herself to the hearts of the membership. Though Ennis is short in stature, she is long and strong on characteristics of the true business woman.

Delphya Scott

The club "scandal" and other important news events are dispensed by Miss Delphya Scott, veteran newspaper woman of Cameron, who since organization of the club has been publicity chairman. She has competently represented the local club in State and National Magazines and the home town papers. Miss Delphya has spent many years in Milam County and is well acquainted with the people whom she so feelingly brings before the public in her articles. She is one of the best loved members of the club, having made for herself a warm place in the hearts of the membership with her kindly understanding and sweet spirit of fellowship. Miss Scott is owner and competent manager of the Cameron Retail Merchants Association, performing a useful and indis-

Woman Murder Victim and Where She Was Found

The body of Mrs. Joe Caporina, known to police as Pauline Johnson, was found last week in a puddle of water off a side road six miles from Houston. Her head was crushed by repeated blows from a blunt instrument, each of which pierced her brain. Police believe gangsters "put her on the spot" because they believed she was a stool pigeon. Pictured above is Mrs. Caporina at the left, while officers in the large picture are shown moving her body from the place where it was found.

pensable service to business firms of this city and state.

Rose Rischar

The only member of the club who has served two terms as President is Miss Rose Rischar, who this year is chairman of the Health Committee. The club was federated under Miss Rischar in 1927; and in 1930-31, she was again named President. Miss Rischar has been active during her several years of club work and through her leadership many projects have met with success. She was responsible for the club's fostering the study of geology and Indian Lore which has continued a major activity of the club women. Miss Rischar represented the local organization at a national meeting held in Louisiana, and at the State Convention at Amarillo this year. She is anaesthetist at the Cameron hospital, where she is associated with her brother, Dr. E. Rischar, well known surgeon. Prior to her present position, she completed a nurses training course at the hospital. She attended St. Mary's Academy at Nauvoo, Illinois.

Kathryn Lovick

Miss Kathryn Lovick, the baby of the organization, is acting chairman of the Emblem Committee. This young lady is one of Cameron's most popular, and in her capacity as cashier for the Community Natural Gas Company, is privileged to meet any of her friends daily. Having attended 4-C Business College at Waco where she received business training, Miss Lovick is well qualified for the position which she has held with the Gas Company for the past several years. Prior to her present work, she served as a reporter for the Temple Daily Telegram. Miss Lovick was honored by the American Legion since being affiliated with the Club, when chosen to represent the local post at a state meeting in Groesbeck as "Doughboy Sweetheart."

Mrs. Lester Glass

Mrs. Lester Glass, who recently moved her membership from Belton, is a most welcomed addition to the club. She has been a member of the organization for several years. Mrs. Glass and her husband came to this city to manage the Cameron Florist Shop. With her friendly and courteous manners, they have in this short time made many friends in this city. "Say it with Flowers" enables Mrs. Glass to have many "Blooming Friendships."

Winnie Bethune

Miss Winnie Bethune, who joined the club this year, came to Cameron from Poplarville, Mississippi, to be associated with her cousins, Messrs. H. P. and Cecil Culpepper as book keeper for the Milam Candy Company. With her sweet and dignified mien she was quick to make friends in this city.

Kathryn K. Robbins

County Superintendent Mrs. Kathryn K. Robbins, is another of the Club members of long standing with a lengthy record of active service. Her participation on a program or in a social for the club is an assurance of good response and a successful evening. This year, as a delegate from the club to the State Convention at Amarillo, she brought back a glowing account of the splendid meeting. As superintendent of Milam County Schools, Mrs. Robbins has been an outstanding figure in County and State educational meetings. She has probably done more for the schools of this county than any other one person, having directed the grouping of school units in order that the rural child might have nearer equal advantages with children in the towns. Her administration has been a demonstration of what women can bring to the business world.

Iva Wilson

Miss Iva Wilson, author of this article, has been a member of the club for over two years. She was born and reared in this county and since graduation from Yoe high school attended T. W. C., Fort Worth for one year. She has been society editor of the Cameron Enterprise for two years.

Cora Cammer

For the past thirty years, Mrs. Cora Cammer, one of the club's most faithful members, has served as president of the United Charity organization of Cameron. She has administered to the sick and needy during these many years, turning a patient and sympathetic ear to cries of the unfortunate. Though never a club officer, Mrs. Cammer's unassuming disposition has made her a popular committee-woman and she has served willingly and efficiently. The mother of nine children, Mrs. Cammer is owner and manager of the Cammer Tailor Shop here. She has resided in Cameron for about 45 years.

Willyne Hyde

Miss Willyne Hyde, secretary-treasurer of the Central Loan Company, was a charter member of the Business and Professional Women's Club. She has been an active worker in the organization, responding readily to demands made upon her. Miss Hyde is a very successful business woman and is a stockholder in the Company for which she works. Prior to her present position, she held a responsible place with the Citizens National Bank.

Mollie A. Moore

An honorary member of the club is Miss Mollie A. Moore, one of the best known women in this city for her many charitable works. Miss Moore was chosen the most distinguished citizen of Cameron by the Edwin Hardy

Post No. 9 of the American Legion and was the only woman in Texas chosen for that honor, similar contests having been conducted by numerous other cities. Various sections of 34 states conducted the Legion Contests and of that entire number, only three women were honored with the selection. This distinguished member of the club is prominent in civic and religious works in Cameron and whatever task she undertakes, she is faithful and seemingly untiring in her efforts.

Leila M. Woolley

Having been tax assessor of Milam county for more than ten years, Miss Leila M. Woolley, who is now a very successful insurance woman, is one of the best known women in Milam county. She did tax work for over 15 years and gave splendid administrations as assessor. Miss Woolley has been active committeewoman in the club and is a member of the official board. A native of Milam county, she has spent most of her life in Cameron. She is a representative of the Southwestern Life Insurance Co. Dependability and ready service are phrases which might easily apply to Miss Woolley.

As King Edgar
in
"The King's Henchman"

As Ford
in "Falstaff"

As Sheriff in

As Terry in "Cuban Love Song"

Here you see Lawrence Tibbett as he looks in real life and again as he appears in some of his grand opera and talking picture roles. Since it is necessary that this famous singer be "a man of many faces," his skill in making up comes in exceedingly handy. Millions who would otherwise be denied the privilege of hearing him are now regular listeners to his golden tones through the "Voice of Firestone" at 8:30 each Monday night, E. S. T., and again at 8:30, Pacific time, over the nationwide NBC Red Network and affiliated stations. The large studio from which he broadcasts is always jammed with interested spectators.

NOTED AMERICAN WOMEN

By LILIAN ATKINSON

Displayed conspicuously, in windows of various business houses of Cameron, this week, are the pictures of twelve of America's outstanding women. These women were selected as representatives of all classes and callings, from homemakers to scientists and women holding the highest degrees and honors conferred by our principal colleges and universities.

This is being done in celebration of our National Business Women's Week in which time, women all over America are reviewing the achievements of women in the affairs of our National life. We feel that we, as women, have merited the respect and confidence of the business world, and we point with pride to these twelve women, as representatives of a vast number of sincere, earnest women, who honestly desire to be of service in their age, and to mean something in the growth of our Nation.

Jane Addams

First among those selected was Jane Addams. What school child has not heard of Jane Addams, of Hull House fame? A woman who has sacrificed her entire life to bring some joy and brightness into the lives of literally thousands of unfortunates.

Naturally endowed with a keen sense of the beautiful, gifted and talented, this woman gave up a life of ease and pleasure, to live in the poorest district of Chicago, among the poorest and most degraded people of that city, with the sole purpose of trying to help those more unfortunate than herself. Her heart had been touched by the sorrow and poverty of these people, and she has devoted her entire life and spent her entire fortune for their relief. No one could be more surprised than Jane Addams, at the honors and fame which she has attained, for her writings and teachings have made her the greatest authority on sociology, today.

Schumann-Heink

The whole world is familiar with the olden voice of our beloved Ernestine Schuman-Heink, and the whole world is no less familiar with the great, loving heart of this noble woman. Her early struggles to acquire a musical education, to obtain engagements, were all hampered by the direst poverty under which she lived. Even during her first unfortunate marriage, these conditions continued. Nothing seemed to daunt this brave woman. Her courage, her love of life and humanity seemed to have grown stronger under adversity. America has long since adopted her as her greatest singer.

Among her most cherished possessions, is a gold star medal, this medal has five stars, one gold for the son she lost in the cantonments. Her medal might well carry another gold star for the son who perished in a German submarine. With her heart torn with sorrow for her divided family, this great woman threw her whole sole and energy into her war relief work, and many thousands of our boys learned to call her mother and to love her.

At seventy, today, she is as active and full of plans for the future as ever. She still sings in concerts, but spends most of her time in training the young artists who aspire to follow in her footsteps.

Mary E. Woolley

Our local club feels an especial interest in the third of these women chosen for this honor; Miss Mary E. Woolley is a kinsman of our own Miss Leilla Wolley. Miss Woolley has been President of Mount Holyoke College for thirty years and has seen that institution grow from a student body of 450 to a limited enrollment of one thousand.

Miss Woolley is a true educator, inspiring all who come under her influence with the importance of living beautifully. Her influence has followed her girls all over the world, and she has seen them filling positions of trust and honor in all countries of the world.

Aside from her great passion for teaching, Miss Woolley has devoted a great deal of time and thought to work for the prevention of war. As a worker in his cause, she is known internationally, and the list of important conferences she has attended is as long as the degrees awarded her by colleges and universities.

She enjoys the distinction of being the only woman to serve as a delegate to the Peace Conference at Geneva, at which place she is, at present engaged in trying to find a solution of the war problem.

Grace Coolidge

Recognizing that there is no higher calling for women than that of homemakers and hostesses, Grace Coolidge was chosen to represent that vast crowd of noble women who are so vitally a part of our commonwealth and who contribute so much to the welfare of the nation. She, like so many others equally gifted with those qualities so eminently fitting them for this great work, might have spent her days, as these noble women are doing everywhere, unknown and unsung, but for the fact that she became the mistress of the White House, and willingly or unwillingly, became prominent. Of a retiring disposition, Mrs. Coolidge has never sought publicity, but because of her gracious manner and charming personality, became one of the most popular women and hostesses who has ever graced the White House as First Lady.

After graduating from the University of Vermont, Grace Goodhue became interested in the Clarke School for the blind, and entered that institution as a teacher, remaining there until her marriage to Calvin Coolidge.

On leaving the White House, the Coolidge family retired to private life, where as a wife and mother, friend and neighbor, Mrs. Coolidge leads a quiet, unobtrusive life, noted everywhere for her gracious friendliness.

Among her talents, she is considered a good poetess, having published a number of poems of merit, among them the best known is entitled "The Open Door," written on the fifth anniversary of the death of her son, John.

Willia Cather

Willia Cather has been acclaimed by the most distinguished critics of her time, as the greatest living American novelist, and those who are familiar with her works, can readily believe this, for we have no more forceful, no better written nor more realistic stories in the English language than "One of Ours," the Pulitzer Prize Winner of 1932, "Death Comes for the Archbishop," "The Professor's House," "My Antonia" and many others. Miss Cather writes of folks as they are, just people that you and I know and who might easily live next door to us.

Moving to Nebraska when just a child, Miss Cather carried the traditions of Old Virginia into a country occupied by a foreign population of Bohemians, Norwegians, Russians and others. She became interested in these people, made friends with their children, and grew up in this free country, imbibing something from the broad prairies and wide skies that is reflected in her writings.

Her first literary work was for her college paper. She began writing little sketches of these people back home. After graduating, she taught school, and during this period, she began writing for McClure's Magazine, then at the height of its popularity.

Later, she was offered the position of assistant editor of this magazine, but left that work because it interfered with her writing.

Miss Cather is a hard worker, a versatile writer and each of her books demonstrate her ability in a different field. Whatever she may write, you can be sure it will be a piece of superb workmanship.

Martha Berry

"Great things from small beginnings grow" is certainly true in the case of Martha Berry. Beautiful, frail, aristocratic, just home from a finishing school, she little dreamed that she was starting a great school that would give countless boys and girls their only way of escape out of ignorance and poverty, on that quiet Sunday afternoon, when she wandered down to her old log cabin playhouse of her childhood. She began playing on the old melodion left there, when shy mountain children timidly slipped into the room to listen and were induced to join in the singing. From this small beginning, she first organized a Sunday School, which gradually grew into the great school it is today.

She has given her whole life and fortune to this work, and by her eloquence and earnestness, she has been able to persuade people of means and many not so wealthy to contribute to the cause, until she has built up one of the finest industrial schools in the whole of the United States.

It is a little singular that two of these celebrated women should have relatives among our citizens. Miss Berry is a cousin of Mrs. Pearl Clement.

Carrie Chapman Catt

Women everywhere owe a great debt to Carrie Chapman Catt, who has fought so many battles for her sex. She believed in women and in their right to a voice in the government and a position in the business world, and to her leadership, women, today, owe many of the civic rights and privileges they now enjoy. She it was, who took up the torch thrown down by Susan B. Anthony, Julia Ward Howe, Lucy Stone and Amelia Bloomer.

She has been President of the National American Woman Suffrage Association since 1900. This Association had acquired so much property, it has not yet been able to liquidate and disband. She has spoken for woman suffrage in every state in the Union and in every important country in Europe and Asia. Suffrage for women was sure to come, but without the efforts of Carrie Chapman Catt, that day would have been long delayed, and still this woman works on that women may be free to be women, even as men are free to be men.

Since this series of famous women has been compiled, death has claimed one of them; Minnie Maddern Fiske. Standing preeminently at the head of her profession, as an actress, she brought to the stage a fineness, a nobility that added no small part to her fame. Fortunate are those among us who were privileged to see her in some of her characterizations.

Cecilia Beaux

Cecilia Beaux is one of the great portrait painters of the world, a field once considered as belonging exclusively to men. Her work hangs in most of the famous art galleries of the world, and her many medals testify to the respect in which she is held by her own profession.

Perhaps her most important commission came in 1919, when she was asked by a committee of prominent men and women to go abroad and paint three great war heroes, Clemenceau, Admiral Lord Beatty and Cardinal Mercier, these pictures to be presented to the United States government.

Miss Beaux also counts writing among her many talents, and she is the author of several books.

Helen Keller

Helen Keller stands in a class by itself. Blind and deaf since nineteen months of age, this wonderful woman has become one of the most famous women of all time.

She is a graduate of Radcliff College, an almost superhuman accomplishment, and since leaving college has written seven books, the most popular among them is "The Story of My Life."

After she was ten years of age, she learned to speak by feeling the lips and throat muscles of her teacher, and now she lectures all over the United States.

Today her work for the American Foundation for the Blind occupies most of her time, however, she takes time to make motion pictures, write, meet interviewers and engage in every other enterprise any normal woman might engage in.

Grace Abbott

Grace Abbott, head of the Childrens Bureau in Washington, the patient, tireless worker for better conditions for mothers and children in the United States is known to many thousands. She is a woman of vision, and that vision is for a safeguarded child life that will make for stronger and better citizens. She has faith, and this faith has inspired her in her effective plea for effective legislation looking to that end.

As proof that this great woman is known and appreciated all over the country, President Hoover was urged by letters from every section of the United States to appoint her Secretary of Labor, when that position was vacant. Never before has there been a demand from both men and women that a woman should be given a place in the Cabinet.

To such women as Grace Abbott, goes the world owe most of its forward movements, and she may yet live to see her ideas and ideals in operation.

Florence Rena Sabin

Few women go in for medical research, for it has been only the last fifty years that medical schools have been open to women, yet, even in these few years, women have proved their fitness, their skill, their patience, their accuracy and their intuition for this work.

Dr. Florence Rena Sabin heads the list of these women. She has the distinction of being the only woman ever elected to the National Academy of Science, and the only woman ever elected to the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research.

Rena Miner, a Vermont girl, went to Colorado to teach school during the great gold strike and there met George Kimball Sabin. After their marriage, Mrs. Sabin was sent to Vermont to college and by the time of her graduation, had determined to become a doctor. She entered the fourth class of women admitted to John Hopkins Medical School and from the beginning attracted attention of her professors.

After graduation she was resident physician in John Hopkins Hospital for a year. From this position, she went on from honor to honor. By 1917, Miss Sabin was full Professor of Histology in John Hopkins University. In 1924, largely because of her work on the origin of the blood vessels, she was elected to the National Academy of Science, which numbers only 250 members of whom she is the only woman. In 1925, she was called to the Rockefeller Institute—again as the only woman member—where she has charge of a group working on the problem of tuberculosis.

She has a marvellous personality, faith and devotion that leads her on to her goal with courage and strength loving her neighbor as herself.

Mrs. T. H. Brown of Lula, Mississippi, is a house guest of Mrs. W. H. Henley this week.

BARN YARD FOWL PARTY

Little Miss Mary Ellen Cottle was a delightful hostess Saturday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 to a "Barn Yard Fowl" party, at the apartments of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cottle in the Commercial Hotel.

Guests were selected from the boys and girls of her grade in school.

During the games candy Easter eggs were passed; later pecan pie topped with whipped cream and cherries were served. Favors were colored Jax and balls in tariton bags.

MONDAY NIGHT BRIDGE CLUB

A St. Patrick motif was attractively carried out in the decorations when Mrs. Earle Burke was hostess this week to the Monday Night Bridge Club. Table accessories lent added charm to the setting where three tables were placed for games.

High trophy was made by Mrs. B. Miller. Mrs. Mack Fox was content with low score, both receiving novelty prizes. Pretty green organdie pin cushions were table cut gifts and went to Mrs. Mack Fox, Miss Dulce McCall and Miss Ruby Lingert.

Miss Dulce McCall assisted the hostess in serving a salad plate with tea on large green trays.

Guests other than club members were Mrs. Albert Collins, Mrs. Lee McLane, Mrs. Mack Fox, Misses Godyl Burke and Mozelle Bigbee.

BAPTIST W. M. S.

The ladies of the Baptist church met at the church Monday afternoon with 22 members present. During the session they decided to send a crate of eggs to Buckner Orphans Home in Dallas and all members are asked to take their eggs to circle meetings next Monday afternoon. and will be held afternoons of this week at the church. Mrs. Archie McLarren led the program.

All circles will meet next Monday in homes for Bible study. The Eunice Taylor Glass circle will meet at 3:00 o'clock with Miss Clara Thomas in the home of her aunt, Mrs. George A. Thomas.

Mrs. W. H. Henley will be hostess to the Lillie Mae Hundley group of Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The Lottie Moon circle will have Mrs. Gus Evans as hostess Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. C. W. Bradbury will be hostess to the Lois Howard Mashburn group Monday at three o'clock.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Monday afternoon the ladies of the Methodist church met at the church for a business session, presided over by the president, Mrs. Bob Terry. Mrs. John Olson led the devotional, followed with a study hour in Missions. Mrs. Batte was assisted in the session by Mrs. Robert Swain of Minerva. Mr. Condree of Minerva dismissed the meeting with a prayer.

Next Monday they will meet in circles at private homes.

EVENING SUPPER

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Cottle entertained with a delightful Saturday evening Supper at their apartments at the Commercial Hotel Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The tables were laid in a most delightful manner where the menu consisted of cheese and pear salad, peach sweet pickles, creamed calf brains, potato chips, hot rolls, individual pecan pies topped with whipped cream and cherries with hot coffee.

This was followed with bridge games where Mr. and Mrs. Albert Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Coleman made highest scores and received Easter baskets filled with home made cookies and candy.

D. A. R. MEETING

The Sarah McCalla Chapter of the Daughters American Revolution, was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. L. Bigbee and Miss Leila Woolley at the home of the former.

The reception room was attractively decorated for the occasion in a bi-centennial theme in honor of Washington's two hundredth birthday. A large handsome picture of George Washington rested on the radio. Attractive home life picture scenes of the illustrious man were noted at vantage points; while the historic cherry tree with hatchet, the handy work of Mrs. Martha Shepherd, was much admired and rested near a splendid equestrian picture of Washington.

In the absence of the regent, Mrs. R. H. McIntosh, vice regent, Mrs. Tiff Moore presided. Mrs. T. V. Adams chaplain, led the opening exercises. Roll call was answered by giving "Rules on Good Behavior" by Washington.

Assisted by Miss Mozelle Bigbee, the hostess served ice cream topped with strawberries and white squares of cake.

AUXILIARY MEETS

The Woman's Auxiliary of All Saints Mission met at the rectory for their monthly program on Monday afternoon.

The program consisted of a review of the first three chapters of the study book, "Building a Christian Nation," given by Mrs. Love.

On account of the Lenten season, instead of serving the usual refreshments, the hostess passed around a plate containing slips of paper on each of which was printed an item relating to religious life. These were read aloud by the Auxiliary members.

METHODIST CHURCH

Prof. Waggoner of Southwestern University, will preach here next Sunday, which will be the last of his series of sermons here for the present time. On March 20, Rev. A. A. Leifeste, Commissioner of Blinn Memorial College, Brenham, will preach Sunday morning, March 20 and Rev. E. L. Ingram, Presiding Elder of Marlin District, will begin a Pre-Easter meeting Sunday evening.

PRESBYTERIAN AUXILIARY

The ladies of the Presbyterian church met at the church Monday afternoon for Bible study led by Mrs. Sam Henderson, taking her lesson from the book of James, which completes their study as outlined. They will take up the study of the book of Hebrews the first Monday in next month.

HISTORY CLUB

The Cameron History Club had as hostess Tuesday afternoon Mrs. T. S. Henderson and daughter, Miss Mary Lake Henderson, at their home on West Seventh Street.

This meeting closed an interesting study on India. Mesdames John C. Martin and J. P. Love had charge of the program.

At the close of the afternoon Misses Mary Lake and Winnie Henderson very delightfully poured hot tea and served a light refreshment course.

FORTY-TWO CLUB

A pretty affair on the social calendar of last week was the Forty-Two Club party given by Mrs. Jack Lewis at her attractive home on West Main Street. The hostess chose a pretty St. Patrick color scheme featuring Irish emblems with white narcissus blooms throughout the home, in bowls, baskets and vases with clover and shamrock greenery.

Game accessories embellished the five tables that were laid in chosen colors. Rebecca Joe, the dainty little daughter of the hostess, dressed in a green and white pajama suit, passed the score cards to guests. Many games were enjoyed and later St. Patrick luncheon sets were laid on game tables centered with an Irish doll dressed in green and white.

Th hostess was assisted in serving a salad plate with hot tea by Miss Ouida McKissick.

Other than club members present were Mrs. George McGehee Jr., Mrs. J. L. Marek, Mrs. Conn Miller, Mrs. L. L. Blaylock, Mrs. Pope Sapp, Mrs. Charlie McDermott, Mrs. Alex Triggs, Mrs. W. R. Hoover, Mrs. Bert Miller, Mrs. Walter Sharpe and Mrs. Guy Pope.

FRIDAY BRIDGE CLUB

Early spring flowers adorned the home of Mrs. Rush Thomas when she entertained the Friday Bridge Club. Beautiful potted plants rested at attractive points and score cards further embellished the chosen color scheme.

A number of games were enjoyed, followed with the hostess serving a delectable salad course with tea on large trays. Mrs. Vernon McIntyre sister of the hostess, assisted in the hospitalities of the occasion.

C. Y. Meyers Receives Promotion

It is with extreme pleasure and deep regret that we announce the removal of C. Y. Meyers, Field Executive of the Heart of Texas Council, to the Gulf Coast Area Council where he is to take over the duty of executive of that council about March 15.

Mr. Meyers has long been active in the council, having been Scoutmaster at Rosebud for several years before taking his present position as Field Executive. It will be with much regret that his many friends will receive this notice of his departure from their midst.

We all are glad that you have received your merited advancement in Scouting, but "Charlie Yoe" we will certainly miss you.

On Tuesday evening, March 1, a splendid Scout meeting was held in the public school building at Burlington. The meeting was called by the troop committee for the purpose of acquainting the citizens and particularly the fathers and mothers in that neighborhood with the plan and purpose of Scouting.

The large crowd that assembled filled to capacity two connecting rooms in the school building. Mr. Robinson, Falls County chairman presided, addresses were made by Mr. Robinson, C. Y. Meyer, Scout Executive and Hon. W. G. Gillis, chairman of Court of Honor of Cameron.

Judge Gillis' address covered the History and Purposes of Scouting, particularly how Scouting works out in home and school, in church and community life, how it is the means of moulding character and building up ideal citizenship.

The speaker pointed out that Scouting was non political, non military and non sectarian, that in its practice boys grow up to be well rounded citizens, physically, morally and spiritually.

All the messages were cordially received and many of those present expressed their interest in and pledged their cooperation with Scouting.

BUCKHOLTS

By MRS. H. N. HARRIS

Mr. and Mrs. Elimar Horstmann and children and Miss Joe Williams were Temple shoppers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Sijanisky and daughters, Aileen, have returned to their home in Dallas after a visit of several days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rubac, the latter is Mrs. Sijanisky's mother. Mrs. Rubac has been sick for some months but is much better now.

Messrs. John Kuzel and Henry Stoeber were Cameron visitors on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Patillo and family and Mrs. Mary Patillo, his mother, spent Sunday in Temple with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. August Garlisch and children of Sharp were Sunday guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garlisch.

Mesdames Ross Dabney and J. M. Mitcham were Cameron visitors Monday.

Mrs. E. E. Phillips is on the sick list at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kirschke had as Sunday twelve o'clock dinner guests Rev. Frank Horak of Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kahler and family of Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Ku-becka and sons, Messrs. and Mesdames F. V. and Will Schiller of Buck-holts.

Mrs. John P. Skinner is reported ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mewhinney were Sunday guests of relatives in Marlin.

Little Miss Genevieve Walschak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Walschak is a 'flu' patient this week.

Mrs. John Meyer made high score when she entertained her bridge club at her home last Wednesday. All members except one were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Jungman were Fort Worth visitors Monday.

Mrs. John Kuzel was hostess for

Well! Well! Well!!!

Have just heard that Scout John Martin of Troop 53 received an award and it was a subscription to Boys Life.

Now what's the secret? How come John? What did you do? What was it all about? We are powerful curious, so just write it up and turn it in. Thank you.

Troop 32, Ben Archer, Scoutmaster
No official meeting was held last week on account of the illness of Mr. Archer, who was suffering with flu. At this writing he is much improved and hopes to be with the Scouts of his troop next Friday.

However, some of the Scouts of Troop 32 have a taste for sweets, and they can scent candy a mile off. That accounts for their joining Troop 53, late that evening, ask them about it.

Troop 52, J. A. Lindle, Scoutmaster
The regular weekly meeting was held by Troop 52 on last Friday and the attendance was good.

This was stunt night and stunts for the occasion were conducted by troop committeeman, Rudolph Richter. Several Scouts of Troop 52 have entered the "Model Coach Building Contest. This coach building though difficult is very interesting as well as instructive.

Any boy who finishes his model will be justly proud of his achievement and even if he does not receive an award, he will have learned a lesson in perseverance that will be worth his effort. Scouts who enter this contest are deserving of public encouragement.

Seventeen Scouts enjoyed a hike to Ledbetter Park, last Friday. After supper they enjoyed a candy feast provided by the Milam Candy Co. A number of Scouts of Troop 32 joined in the fun. After one game the northern came on and everyone beat it for home and dry clothes.

the Corinth Home Demonstration Club Monday afternoon, March 7. Miss Bartholomew, County Home Agent, met with the club. There were ten club members present and a large number of visitors, among whom were Messrs. George Banzhaf, County Agent and Dawson, Specialist from U. S. Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Biological Survey.

The subjects for the afternoon's program were "Spring Care of Orchards." After club members had talked of "Cultivation" and "Pruning" Mr. Banzhaf gave interesting and instructive talks on these subjects and on "Special Fertilization" and "Inter-Dropping," "Diseases and their Control." He then prepared a spray mixture and demonstrated pruning and spraying the fruit trees. After this demonstration the crowd returned to the house where Mr. Dawson spoke at length on rat control, also means by which the rabbits can be poisoned or trapped, all of which information one needs to know as both the rat and rabbit are quite destructive and the former a menace to health. In answer to roll call the club members gave reports of numbers of fruit trees, grape vines, berries, shrubs, shade trees, rose gardens, cutting beds, lawns, hedges were planted and walks made. Miss Bartholomew talked of plans for the "Spring Meat Show" to be held in the early part of April in Cameron. The meeting then adjourned after which the hostess served "colaches" cakes, other sweets and cocoa. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. O. J. Hailes.
